Dozen Speeches

CRITICISES TAFT'S VETOES

Exhorts People of Keystone State to
"Hump" Themselves, and Throw Off Corrupt Influences—
Enlists for Life.

On Governor Wilson's car, Easton, Pa., Aug. 29.—Governor Woodrow Wilson invaded Pennsylvania today, intending only to make an address at the State grangers' picnic at Williams Grove, south of Harrisburg. The Governor was surrounded by such big crowds wherever his train stopped that he found when he crossed from Pennsylvania into New Jersey, at Easton tonight that he had made half a dozen speeches and had shaken hands with thousands of people.

The Governor in all rode 215 miles through Pennsylvania, and when night came he was tired and hoarse. At Atlantic, Harrisburg, Williams Grove, Reading, Allentown and Easton, great crowds jammed the railroad yards and the Governor competed in his talks with the noise of locomotives and trains.

"The railways always interfere with politics," declared the Governor as an engine thundered by while he was talking at Reading.

A branny blacksmith, wrung the Governor's hand so hard at Williams Grove that for a moment he dropped his right hand limply to his side, and extended his left hand. The Governor said tonight his hand still pained him from the experience. Several thousand people wedged themselves in the big auditorium at Williams Grove to hear the Governor's speech, but a far greater number was unable to gain entrance, and the Governor made a second speech out doors.

Governor Wilson digressed materially from his proposed speech, but developed much the same line of thought, criticizing Colonel Roosevelt's tariff views and taking issue with President Taft's veto of the Free List bill. He referred indirectly to political conditions in Pennsylvania, as outlined by Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, who aided the Governor, and spoke of the Penrose revelations.

"I never have believed," said Governor Wilson, "and no other man can believe the people of the great State of Pennsylvania approved of the things that were erroneously done by the political leaders of the great State of Pennsylvania. The character of the people of Pennsylvania and the character of their government have been utterly unlike one another, and yet it is not true that you are not surprised by recent revelations? You have sat by while the trustees did what they pleased with the government of this State, this rich, this powerful, this enlightened Commonwealth."

"Pennsylvania has not humped herself until recently; and Pennsylvania has sat by inactive, while that kind of government has been carried on with apparent acquiescence of her own voters."

Discussing President Taft's veto of the farmers' Free List bill, Governor Wilson said: "It was vetoed by the President because (he me say, parenthetically, that I have a great personal respect for Mr. Taft) but Mr. Taft has not given himself those wide connections of sympathy which would enable him to understand the demands of the people of the United States. Mr. Taft vetoed that Free List bill because consciously or unconsciously he represents not the people of the United States, but those who have held the power in trust for their own purposes."

"You hear of corrupt influences, gentlemen; you hear of those corrupt influences being exerted here. They are everywhere that they can be exerted. I would be ashamed of things of one party that I was not willing to say of the other, if it were guilty, and I am willing to admit that in certain instances, in certain places, among other places, in the State of New Jersey, the leaders—a little handful, but, nevertheless, the leaders—of the Democratic party have had alliance with these corrupt influences, and the worst machine you can get up against is not a machine that is altogether Republican or altogether Democratic, but a machine that is made up of both of them, and that works together at every turn. You have got them in Pennsylvania, and we have them in a great many parts of the United States, or we have had them, but what I want to call your attention to is that the men that conduct those machines are a small fraction of the party they pretend to represent, and the men who exercise corrupt influences upon them are a small fraction of the best men of the United States. And what we are together to fight against is not a party, is not a great body of citizens, but a little coterie, a group of men here and there, a few men who subsist by deceiving us and cannot subsist a moment after they cease to deceive us."

Governor Wilson, who was addressed as the next President, by the chairman of the meeting, said that he did not know whether he would be President or not, and added:

"I would like to have the fighting advantage that that great office would give me, but having been born of a fighting breed, I don't have to have the office to do the fighting. I have enlisted for life, and I don't have to be an officer. I can shoot just as straight as a private."

BECKER'S DEFENCE BROKEN
Police Officer's Attorney Declares
He Never Accepted Money in Stocks or Accumulated
a Fortune.

New York, Aug. 29.—The defence set up in behalf of Police Lieutenant Becker, alleged instigator of the Rosenthal murder, and accused of gambling graft, that he accumulated his fortune of nearly $1,000,000 through stock speculation, was punctured today when James E. Marsh, the lawyer, declared before the judge that there was no truth in statements attributed to him that he engineered the police officer's stock speculations.

Marsh had been quoted as saying that he and Becker had a joint account, and that as a result of his tips, Becker had made thousands through stock deals.

When the lawyer was first questioned by the jury, he is understood to have said in a general way that he acted for Becker in stock transactions, but could not furnish specific details. He added, it was learned, that he had acted in a similar capacity for others, naming an Italian banker. This banker was immediately summoned and appeared before the jury. Marsh was then recalled, and after being closely questioned by the jury, it was learned, that he never conducted any deals for Becker worth mentioning.

District Attorney Whitman received information today which leads him to believe that "Lefty Louie" and "Gyp, the Blood," the missing thugs, wanted as the actual slayers of Rosenthal, are being kept in hiding not far from New York by police friends of Lieutenant Becker. The prosecution heard that it was planned to produce them at the proper time as witnesses for the defense. "Lefty Louie," he was told, is anxious to testify that Harry Vallon was the man who fired the shots that killed Rosenthal, and would disclose a marriage on Vallon's part for wanting to kill the gambler.

Another report came to the District Attorney today that the missing men sailed last Tuesday for Europe, having been in hiding ever since the murder. Thomas Hope, an eye witness of the murder, who testified before the jury, has mysteriously disappeared, and Mr. Whitman was told that he had sailed for Europe. The prosecutor declared tonight that the Couper's testimony could be spared, but expressed the fear that some of his more important witnesses may be spirited away in a similar manner. He had no legal way of detaining them, he added.

Becker's trial will begin, if present plans are adhered to before any testimony is taken in the John Doe proceedings before Justice Goff to expose police corruption. After formally opening the proceedings on Tuesday, Justice Goff will adjourn them until September 11, when the special grand jury will be empaneled. The trial of Becker will probably begin the day previous, before the usual petit jury of twelve. Testimony of value in the John Doe proceedings will be developed, it is expected, during the Becker trial.

There is a strong probability it was intimated that the District Attorney's office today that both Mayor Gaynor and Police Commissioner Waldo would be called as witnesses during the investigation.

HAS A BULLY DAY.

Roosevelt Races Over Vermont, Proclaiming Progressive Doctrines.
Burlington, Vt., Aug. 29.—For 150 miles former President Roosevelt raced over Vermont roads in automobiles today proclaiming the doctrines of his party. He made speeches and his party's work lasted from 9 A. M. until nearly midnight. When he arrived in Burlington, where he spent the night, he was covered with dust, but said he was in fine trim, and had had a "quite bully day."

In his speeches, Colonel Roosevelt advanced the doctrine of "clean government," and John D. Archibald, president of the Standard Oil Company, he denounced them as representative of the "Combination between crooked business and crooked politics," and said they had condemned themselves by their testimony before the Senate committee which has been investigating campaign contributions. The ex-President also assailed both the Republican and Democratic parties and urged the voters of this staunch Republican State not to be reluctant in leaving the Republican party, which no longer represented them. Tonight the Colonel demanded the immediate repeal of the Canadian Reciprocity law enacted by Congress. He attacked the Democratic party for its stand on the tariff, saying that if his plank were put into effect it would "cause utter ruin, both to our agricultural and industrial communities and have almost no effect on helping them."

Colonel Roosevelt encountered friendly crowds of good size wherever he spoke today.

ed as the next President, by the chairman of the meeting, said that he did not know whether he would be President or not, and added:

"I would like to have the fighting advantage that that great office would give me, but having been born of a fighting breed, I don't have to have the office to do the fighting. I have enlisted for life, and I don't have to be an officer. I can shoot just as straight as a private."

STANDARD OIL CO.
OFFICERS INDICTEDBill Returned by Federal Jury in Texas on Conspiracy Charge

RESULT OF INVESTIGATION

Great Corporation is Charged With Violating Anti-Trust Laws—Ac-
tation Constitutes First Move
Since Dissolution

Dallas, Texas, August 29.—The Federal grand jury of the Northern district of Texas late today returned an indictment against the Standard Oil Company. The charge is restraint of trade and commerce and unlawful conspiracy. It is alleged that the defendants, the Standard Oil Company, and the Magnolia Petroleum Company conspired to destroy the business of the Pierce-Fordice Oil Association of Texas.

The specific offense is alleged to have occurred June 29th, 1912. The names of the following persons appear in the indictment: Calvin N. Paine, of New York; Henry C. Folger, Jr., of New York; John Seallin, of Galveston; A. C. Eble, of Dallas; E. R. Brown, of Corsicana, Texas; W. S. Teagle, of Plainfield, N. J.; and the Standard Oil Company, of New York; the Standard Oil Company, of New Jersey, and the Magnolia Petroleum Company, of Texas.

The indictment alleges that the Pierce-Fordice Oil Association is engaged in selling various oils and lubricants in the territory named and not being a producer, or manufacturer, it has bought its supplies from the three companies charged in the indictment, that the defendants entered into a conspiracy for the Magnolia company to establish rival agencies and sell direct to consumers in the towns where the Pierce-Fordice Association has agencies; to hire away the agents and officers of that association; to announce that the association would not sell oils to the trade at prices lower than it charged the association, and to refuse to sell that association engine naphtha and gasoline.

Without products it could make no sales whatever to many customers.

Based upon these allegations the defendants are charged on two counts: First with conspiring in restraint of trade, and second with attempting to create a monopoly in the interstate trade in coal oil, etc. The case is set for the January term of court.

Three years ago the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, in one proceeding and the Security Oil Company, and the Navajo Refining Company, in another proceeding brought by the Attorney General of Texas, were held to be trusts. The expulsion of the former from Texas and the corporate death of others was decreed. The properties were sold out under judgment.

Result of the Month's Probe

Washington, August 29.—The indictment of Standard Oil officials at Dallas, is said at the Department of Justice, is the result of a three-months' investigation of charges that an anti-trust law had been violated. The government, it is added, has not yet decided whether it will proceed on the question of the violation of the decree which would involve contempt proceedings. Contempt proceedings would have to be undertaken directly before a Federal court. Such action is beyond the function of a grand jury. The indictment returned today, however, it is pointed out, will not deprive the government from prosecuting the contempt of court, in case that course is considered desirable. Officials believe that the initial move should be made through a judge.

The special jury which returned the indictment has been working on the case since last Tuesday, when it was convened to consider the government's allegations and evidence.

Today's action constituted the government's first move against the Standard Oil Company since it was dissolved last November into its thirty-three component parts to restore competition. A fight between Standard Oil interests and the Water-Pierce Oil Company, now pending in the Federal court at St. Louis, involves the faithfulness of the Standard Oil Company in carrying out the decree of dissolution. The general government is not a party to this suit which was brought nominally by the State of Missouri to compel the inspectors of the election to vote the proxies of the Rockefeller and other Standard Oil interests which are said to have named Standard Oil men as officials of the company. The inspectors refused on the ground that it would violate the usual rule.

Lawton, Okla., Aug. 29.—A report of the condition of Melissa Houston, a Kiowa squaw, sent from here last night, stated that once she was the wife of Gen. Sam Houston, first President of the republic of Texas. This proves to be erroneous.

PROVISIONS OF THE MEASURE

Law Admits the Mailing of Parcels
Weighing as Much as 11 Pounds
At Varying Rates—Much
Equipment Needed

Washington, Aug. 29.—Announcement was made by Postmaster General Hitchcock today that the Postoffice Department would be in readiness on January 1st, 1913, to put into general operation the recently authorized parcels post system.

The postal express business, which must be organized within the next four months, will extend over more than a million miles on rural delivery and steamer routes and will cover, in all its various applications all systems of transportation of parcels now utilized by private express companies.

In order to take up personally and immediately the work of the new service, Mr. Hitchcock has cancelled engagements he had made for his vacation and will remain in Washington to direct the organization.

The details of the parcels post system will be worked out by a series of committees composed of experts of the department. The central executive committee announced today consisted of Chief Robert S. Barry, Superintendent of the Division of Salaries and Allowances; Chief Clerk A. A. Fisher, of the second assistant postmaster general; Supt. Geo. L. Wood, of the Division of Rural Mails.

"First of all," said Mr. Hitchcock tonight, "must be prepared a classification of the articles that can be accepted for transportation by parcels post. The law admits to the mails all kinds of merchandise that can be transported safely, including products of the farm and garden, as well as factory products, provided such articles do not weigh more than 11 pounds nor exceed 72 inches in combined length and girth. The mode of packing will be prescribed carefully."

"The equipment of the mail service is not adopted to the carriage of such merchandise and, therefore, new equipment must be provided. It is likely we shall employ extensively, hampers similar to those used in foreign countries, in handling parcels post mail. The style, size and material of such hampers must be given in advertisements issued for their purchase."

"The law provides that postage on all parcels shall be prepaid by affixing stamps. This will necessitate the designing and printing of at least a dozen denominations of special stamps ranging in value from one cent to one dollar. Provision for the collection on delivery at the price of a parcel must be made. Regulations governing this phase of the system already are being prepared."

"The new law provides indemnification for lost or damaged articles, and since many of the articles to be carried will be fragile or perishable the question of indemnity is one for careful thought. The system of distance requires the employment by postmasters of a distinctive postal map on which the zones are given. Such a map already has been prepared by the department and arrangements are being made for the printing of about 150,000 in order that each postoffice and postal station in the United States may be supplied with two copies. A directory of all offices is being compiled for use in applying the prescribed rates of postage to the distances shown on the zone maps."

It is realized by Mr. Hitchcock that the provision for additional equipment and transportation facilities is necessary to avoid any posts clogging. This involves one of the most serious problems now confronting the Postoffice Department as a result of taking over so large a volume of additional mail.

A summary of the provisions of the new parcels post law follows:

Any article is mailable if not over 11 pounds in weight nor more than 72 inches in length and girth combined, nor likely to injure the mails or postal equipment or employees.

Flat rate of 1 cent per ounce up to 4 ounces regardless of distance.

Above 4 ounces rates are by the pound or fraction thereof, and varying with distance as follows:

Rural route and city delivery, first pound, .05; additional pound, .01; 11 pounds, .15.

50-mile zone, first pound, .06; additional pound, .02; 11 pounds, .35.

150-mile zone, first pound, .06; additional pound, .04; 11 pounds, .46.

300-mile zone, first pound, .07; additional pound, .05; 11 pounds, .57.

600-mile zone, first pound, .08; additional pound, .06; 11 pounds, .68.

1,000-mile zone, first pound, .09; additional pound, .07; 11 pounds, .79.

1,400-mile zone, first pound, .10; additional pound, .09; 11 pounds, 1.00.

1,800-mile zone, first pound, .11; additional pound, .10; 11 pounds, 1.11.

Over 1,800 miles, first pound, .12; additional pound, .12; 11 pounds, 1.22.

The Postmaster General may make provision for indemnity, insurance, and collection on delivery, with additional charges for such service, and

KITCHIN SPEAKS
TO BIG AUDIENCEGovernor Addressed New Hanover Voters on the Senatorial Question

GREAT AUDIENCE HEARD HIM

Defined Democracy and Attacked Record of Senator Simmons—His Friends Enthusiastic Over
His Reception

Speaking from the portico of the city hall in Wilmington, to a crowd of from 2,000 to 2,500 people, Governor W. W. Kitchin, of North Carolina, last evening delivered a vigorous and eloquent plea in behalf of his candidacy for the United States Senate in this State, predicting a Democratic victory in the coming election and promising, if elected himself, to uphold the party principles in all instances, whether on the majority or minority, a thing, he declared, that Senator F. M. Simmons had failed to do, as shown by his record in Congress.

The Governor attacked the record of Senator Simmons in Congress, declaring that he had repudiated the principles of democracy, the platform of the party and his pledges to the people by voting for and speaking in favor of the iniquitous Republican doctrine of protection. He declared that he was not dealing in a matter of personality, but rather one of principles and records, and that he was ready to meet Senator Simmons in joint debate at any place and at any time and say to him and before him all that he said in his absence, and offering furthermore to withdraw from the Senatorial race if it could be proved that any of the statements he made regarding Senator Simmons' record were not absolute facts.

Governor Kitchin's speech was well received by the crowd and he was frequently interrupted by applause. His friends are enthusiastic over his reception and they declare that it has undoubtedly won him many votes in New Hanover county.

The hour for the speaking was 8:39 o'clock and by that time a large crowd had assembled out in the open in front of the city hall. Seats were provided directly in front of the steps for the ladies, and there was a large number of the gentler sex in attendance. The steps of the city hall were covered with people and Third street, from one side of the city hall to the other, was crowded by hundreds who stood up during the course of the speech.

Jos. W. Little, Esq., a prominent member of the local bar, in a short talk introduced Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, who in turn introduced the Governor. Mr. Bellamy, in his speech declared that the Democratic party sprang into existence with the birth of the nation as the natural evolution of that sentiment that all men are equal rights and none special privileges. He said that the party had always fought valiantly against those who contended for the rights of the classes rather than the masses, and that it had successfully defeated and killed the Federalist party, the Whig party, the Know-Nothing party, the Greenback party, the Populist party and that it is now proceeding to dig the grave of the Republican party. He predicted that in November the death warrant of the Republican party would be written. He introduced the Governor as the High Priest of Democracy, one who was a true Democrat in every fibre and essence of his being and who, after being elected and serving his term in the Senate, would lay down his toga unassailed by one act that would conflict with the principles or platform of the party. He declared that he had had the distinguished honor to represent this district in Congress when the Governor was also a member, and that he unhesitatingly could say that the Governor was the ablest representative the State had in Congress at that time. He said that when the people of Wilmington had been assailed in Congress, following the riot of 1898, the most eloquent speech made in their defense was made by William W. Kitchin. Mr. Bellamy declared that Governor Kitchin should have the confidence, respect, admiration and eternal gratitude of the citizens of this section.

In opening his remarks Governor Kitchin declared that his audience would have to pay strict attention, as he had been doing considerable speaking in the open air and that his voice had become somewhat hoarse. He said that he was here to make a political speech, and a patriotic speech in hopes.

There have been, said the Governor, since the earliest history of man, two different theories of government, one founded on the idea that a government had the right to use its powers toward the enrichment of certain classes, no matter what the resultant hardship to the masses. This he said had been the theory of kings and tyrants in the years gone by, and is now the theory of the Republican party today.

The other theory he said, has its basis in the sentiment that the government has the right to use its powers of taxation for the purpose of revenue only, and that is the principle of the Democratic party.

New York, Aug. 29.—New York won from Brooklyn today four to three, taking the game by scoring twice in the ninth inning largely through Brooklyn's miscues. Myers' pop fly to left was allowed to drop safe. Devore ran for Myers; Fletcher singled, but Devore might have been forced at second had not Moran thrown wide at that base. Devore scored after an out had moved up the two runners, when Kirkpatrick fielded Snodgrass' grounder and Miller dropped the throw to the plate.

Northern's hitting and a great catch by the same player, featured.

SOUTH CAROLINA PRIMARY.

State Committee Meets Today to Settle Contests—Fraud Charged.

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 29.—The South Carolina Democratic committee which meets tomorrow probably will be called upon to pass on the legality of the ballots cast for Governor in the Democratic primary of Tuesday, in which Governor Bleasde, who is seeking re-nomination, on the face of the returns has won.

The heavy vote for Governor has called forth much comment, and there have been frequent charges of irregularities. So far, three counties have recounted the ballots, and in three more recounts are now going on. In others the irregularities, of a minor nature, were allowed to pass.

Senator Benjamin Tillman tonight sent a telegram to State Chairman John Garry Evans, directing attention to the news reports that 20,000 too many votes were cast in the primary. The Senator in his telegram tells the State chairman "This matter should be sifted, and if there is fraud it should be detected and punished. He declares that 'the primary system' should be protected at all cost."

The vote for Governor stands, with five boxes missing: Bleasde, 71,525; Jones, 66,466; Duncan, 2,385.

This gives Governor Bleasde a 2,674 majority over his two competitors.

Senator B. R. Tillman has been re-nominated for his fourth term, having received 72,035 votes to 36,533 for W. J. Talbert and 27,879 for N. B. Dial.

Jno. G. Richards, Jr., has been elected railroad commissioner on the first ballot, and S. T. Carter has further increased his majority over D. W. McLaurin for State treasurer.

The executive committee of the various counties met today to tabulate the votes, but tonight had not completed their task. The work probably will be finished tomorrow. The vote now is unofficial in many counties. The State committee probably will be unable to accomplish anything, because of the lack of official returns, and may have to adjourn until next week.

A Washington doctor thinks that 75 per cent of the children are defective. He might say this in the news-papers, but wonder if he is bold enough to say it at a mother's meeting.

OUR IDLE LANDS.

Editor Star.—Permit me to add a few pertinent facts as bearing out my statement given you a few days ago. Then I had in mind the recent turning to account of the idle lands of this and nearby sections. No great while has elapsed since public spirited gentlemen of Wilmington ventured to put in operation a horse car line for the city. To be in turn followed by electric cars, then came the sea-coast line for its share of patronage to be followed in time by trolley line extending over onto the Beach. And here let us pause to remark what a benediction to this city and citizens from all surrounding States is this beautiful resort for pleasure and health. For Wightsville Beach is far famed, and justly so. And who doubts that it contributes its share to the business interests of this city? Wilmington capital, headed by Mr. Hugh MacRae, not only built, operated and maintained excellent car service in this city but unexcelled service to the beach. Nor did this great and increasing enterprise stand in the way of proving, by scientific research and by expenditure of large sums of money, that our sandy soil could be profitably utilized in growing crops on the line of the Tidewater Power Co., but the efforts were also directed to opening up new settlements and peoples them that profit may come to all parties concerned.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Boston won another victory and increased its lead in the pennant race today at the expense of the Athletics and Eddie Plank. The score was 3 to 1. In the ninth errors by Yeckes and Hooper put Philadelphia in a position to score its only run on McInnes' double. Plank's delivery was easy for the Red Sox. Brown, who succeeded Plank in the fifth, allowed only two hits. Boston . . . 100 420 015—8 8 2
Philadelphia . . . 000 000 001—5 2 0

LUTHERAN MISSIONS.

Women's Young People's and Children's Societies Convention.
(Special to The Star)

Mount Pleasant, Aug. 24.—The twenty-seventh annual convention of the Women's Missionary Societies of the Lutheran Synod of North Carolina met in Holy Trinity Lutheran church, Mount Pleasant, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. In the presence of the president, Mrs. J. A. Linn, the vice president, Mrs. J. Q. Wentz of Salisbury conducted the opening service.

Mrs. Wentz read her president's report summarizing the year's work and showing the addition of six new societies during the year. The synodical organization shows a membership of 51 women's societies, 25 young people's societies and 27 children's societies. About one hundred delegates represent these organizations. The organization has continued during the year its work in the cause of home and foreign missions. It suffered a great loss in the removal of its president for many years, Mrs. J. A. Linn, to South Carolina. But her mantle fell upon able shoulders, as the year's record shows.

Dr. Patterson's address before the convention on Friday night at 8 o'clock was strong and clear. He spoke in his usual forcible manner. Features of the program Friday and Saturday was a Mission Study Class conducted by Mrs. E. C. Cronk of Columbia, S. C.

Two splendid business sessions were held Saturday morning and afternoon. The Societies have met their obligations at the Woman's Memorial Church at High Point, the First Church at Greensboro, and will next year aid the new congregation at Thomasville. All obligations to the State field have been promptly met, including the regular evangelistic work and the building of the new School at Kumamoto.

One of the best parts of the entire Convention was the Young People's Program rendered Saturday night at 8 o'clock by the young people. Mr. C. C. Cobb, a theological student at the Seminary at Columbia, S. C., made the address of the evening. The subject of the exercise was: "Mission Work Illustrated."

The sermon was preached on Sunday at 11 A. M. by the Rev. M. L. Sturtevant of Lenoir College at Hickory. The children rendered an interesting program at 2 P. M. The final service was held Sunday night when the sermon was preached by the W. H. Riser of China Grove. The Convention was formally closed by the president.

Both St. Paul's and St. Matthew's of Wilmington are represented, Miss Bertie Hanson representing the Society at St. Paul's. Both congregations show increased activity, having rendered splendid reports.

The convention will meet at China Grove next year. This will bring perhaps two hundred enthusiastic mission workers to that city. Wilmington invited it but could take it only on the condition that it meet in July which the convention regarded was unconstitutional.

BASEBALL TOMORROW.

Contest at League Park Between Coast Line and Delgado Teams.

Baseball fans are looking forward with considerable interest to the game to be played at League Park tomorrow afternoon between the Coast Line and Delgado teams, as the winning team will henceforth be regarded the champion. The two preceding games that have been played, a season between two teams were won by the Coast Line boys, but the Delgado boys are satisfied that they will be able to turn the tables tomorrow.

The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock. Ample street car service will be furnished by the Tidewater Power Company. Mr. Louis T. Moore will be the umpire.

The line-up will be as follows: Coast Line—Starrie, c.; Green, and Corbett, p.; Terrell, lb.; Emerson, 2nd.; Taylor and Shaw, ss.; Hines, 3rd.; Truett, lf.; Dals, rf.; Burnett, cf.; Delgado—Waston, c.; Holt, p.; Parish, lb.; Ansley, 2b.; Teague, ss.; Lutterloh, 3rd.; Carr, cf.; Longest, rf.; Wood, Prayer, Farrow, subs.; Lindley and L. Lutterloh, lf.

..Theatrical..

The Grand Theatre will offer today its usual big bill in moving pictures which, with the natural attractiveness of the place, should ensure a packed house at each and every performance.

"The Beauty Parlor of Stone Gulch" is a Kaleid in which is told how Tilly Temple lost her position in the Broadway Beauty Parlor and went West, arriving at Stone Gulch and fixing up a room, distributes her card and announces that the new establishment is open for business. A beauty parlor is something new to the wild and woolly West, but business comes with a rush and a bunch of shaggy cowboys have the time of their lives. The ranch girls become jealous and try to run the fair heroine out of town. The whole story is amusing and most interesting in the extreme and will cause a roar of laughter from beginning to end.

The other feature film for today is "Vultures and Doves," a Vitagraph, wherein is told the story of some high finance. The story is told of the vultures of greed who prey and fatten on the unwary and gullible. There is a bit of pathos running through the entire picture and it will prove most interesting and instructive to a great many.

Besides this picture there is still a third and all told the bill for today will be one of the best of the week.

At The Bijou
Yesterday was another great day, both for attendance and artistic glory, at the popular Bijou theatre. It was a constant stream of folks, both afternoon and night, and each large audience was thoroughly delighted. Of course, each individual was able to keep cool, because that is where the Bijou is especially classy. It is always the joy spot for solid comfort, as well as for big entertainment.

Today's bill, as usual, is going to be filled with the best of the latest, and there is going to be plenty of novelty. And speaking about what is delightfully unique, another one of those eye-opening films of stage life will top today's big bill, in "The Awakening of Jones." It tells of two theatrical folks who get "strapped" and leave their trunks for good. The country couple investigate and wear the stage apparel, which is of the most fantastic and mirth-provoking type. A drummer happens on the scene—just one of those breezy "knights of the grip"—and what he does is a scream.

Another great hit today is "A Change of Spirit." It tells, in a most attractive manner, of a narrow-minded father, who denies his daughter much pleasure, and the way she finally gets free and flirts with strangers. The awakening causes a helpful and healthful change of spirit. It is a great film of every-day life.

The other photographs for today, because there are always three reels jammed with the latest films at the Bijou, are also big stars.

The Old Homestead
America's greatest success, dear to millions the country over, comes to the Academy of Music Tuesday night. Reference is, of course, to Denman Thompson's famous idyll of New England, "The Old Homestead." This celebrated drama of New England rural life is now in its twenty-seventh year of uninterrupted success. When we look back upon the years that have intervened since "The Old Homestead" was first produced at the Boston Theatre in April, 1886, it seems incredible that this same, simple, domestic drama, dealing as it does, with scenes and incidents which are in no way remarkable in themselves, should in this theatrical season of 1912-13 be still one of the best of the cards in the theatrical world. Millions of people have witnessed it during the past twenty-six years and yet the theatre-going public has not yet tired of Dear Uncle Josh, of Cy. Prime and Seth Perkins, Aunt Matilda, Ed. Ganey, Happy Jack, Rickett Ann and the others. The standing ovation and the quartets of farm hands and grand chorus of twenty voices in the Grace church scene is looked forward to with as much interest as of yore, and the scenic equipment this season is as beautiful and effective as ever. The original company under the personal direction of Mr. Frank Thompson will be seen in the capacity of housefuls will undoubtedly welcome the grand old play.

RECORD TOBACCO SALES.
Between $25,000 and $30,000 a Day
(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., August 29.—Decidedly the record sale of tobacco for this season, on the local market was made yesterday, when nearly a quarter of a million pounds were sold on four warehouse floors. The quality of the offerings, too, had wider range and it was not infrequent that piles were found marked at 30, 35 and 40 cents a pound. The average was around 12 cents, and between $25,000 and $30,000 were paid out on this market for the week yesterday.

Last night the organizers of boy scouts in this city was perfected with the enrollment and taking of the obligations of scoutcraft by over 30 boys. There was the requisite number present for the formation of a full troop, and the boys entered into the thing with much enthusiasm.

Sheriff Nunn yesterday carried to Raleigh Charlie Parker, to serve a 25-year sentence in State's prison for second degree burglary. Parker was the only prisoner sentenced to the penitentiary by last week's term of criminal court, and only three were sent to the county roads, out of nearly a hundred cases on the docket.

News has been received in this city of the marriage last week in Quincy, Mass., of Miss Edyth Latham, of Kinston, and Mr. Arthur Settan, of Quincy. Miss Latham, who is the daughter of Mrs. L. A. Cobb, has been spending much time with Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Kennedy in Quincy, and met Mr. Settan for the first time during her visit. The acquaintance rapidly grew into a love affair culminating in the marriage.

TO PROTECT AMERICANS.

Mexican Government Orders Troops to Men Beset by Rebels.

Washington, Aug. 29.—The Mexican government has ordered Federal troops to hasten to a point between Hermosillo and Nogales, in the State of Sonora, for the protection of two Americans—Frank B. Curtis and Arthur Cunningham—who are beset by rebels, thirsting for revenge. The Americans had been left in charge of a mining camp at El Oro, and had killed several rebels in trying to protect themselves and property from them.

Army officers along the boundary line report to the War Department that from the information they gather from refugees from Mexico into America, the conditions in the Mexican State of Sonora are such that the same state of affairs exists in the northwestern part of the State of Chihuahua.

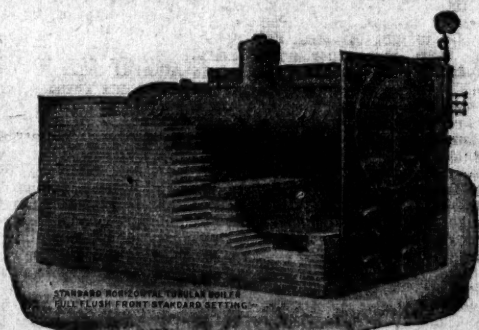

The War Department has about concluded that it will be necessary to materially strengthen the American border patrol on the western part of the line and as General Steever has not sufficient force he will probably need more cavalry. Men are being gotten ready at Fort Riley, Kan., and Fort D. M. Russell, Wyo. to protect Arizona and Southern California as soon as Steever gives the word.

AFFAIRS AT STATE CAPITAL

Charters for Several Corporations—
State Farmers' Convention Adjourns—Pitt Convict Pardon—
Other News

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 29.—Chairman Franklin McNeill, of the Corporation Commission, has gone to Charlotte on official business, the character of which is not made public here.

Congressman Claude Kitchin has arrived here and will spend several days putting in efforts in the interest of the campaign of his brother, Governor Kitchin, for the United States Senate against Senator Simmons and Chief Justice Walter Clark. Senator Simmons also arrived here tonight and will give his personal attention to matters in his State headquarters here for a few days.

Charters were issued today for the Aycock Ginning and Storage Co., of Lenoir county, capital $5,000 by George Taylor, W. M. Holland and others, and for the J. G. Dunn Co., Newbern, capital $40,000 authorized and $24,000 subscribed by J. G. Dunn and William Dunn for a general mercantile business.

The Croatan Plantation Co., of Hoffman, amended its charter so as to change the name to the Newfoundland Co., incorporating Ralph Page, Frank C. Page and U. L. Spence.

Tom Arnold, white, for many years in the employ of the city as a driver, had his knee crushed today by being jacked by a horse. His advanced age makes the injury especially dangerous.

The Durham Furniture Co., E. L. Singleton and W. D. Cooper, owners, has filed voluntary proceedings in bankruptcy, placing assets at $7,852 and liabilities at $7,241. The hearing is set for September 10th.

This, the last day of the State Farmers' Convention, was "Economic Day," the session lasting from 9:30 until noon, when the final adjournment was taken. The principal addresses were made by Kelmer Rablin, on "Cow Testing Association," by Dr. J. L. Coulter, of the United States Census Bureau, on "The Problem of Marketing Farm Products," Mr. Joseph G. Brown, president of the Citizens' National Bank, Raleigh, on "Relation of the Banking System to the Farmer," and by J. W. Bailey, of Raleigh, on "Torrens System of Registering Land Titles."

The woman's department of the State convention had the most profitable session during which the whole scope of woman's work on the farms and in the homes has received attention by experts. Taking special part in these meetings for the women were Mrs. Mary E. Hillard, Lynchburg; Mrs. Nellie Deane, N. H. Hunt, Mrs. Louise Mahler, Raleigh; Miss Catherine Parker, Simmons College; Miss Jane Ward, Mrs. Chas. McKimmon, Dr. J. A. Ferrell, Mr. Jacques Bushee, Dr. Hubert Royster and Mrs. W. R. Hollowell.

Counsel representing the city authorities of Raleigh have written to all Federal and State court judges to whom counsel for trustees for the bondholders of the Wake Water Co. could apply to procure an order for receiver or other action in the matter of the contest between the city and the Water Company on account of the present hostile condition of the city water supply, insisting that no petition be granted until counsel for the city have opportunity to be fully heard. The purpose is to see to it that no one connected with the present management of the water company, even remotely, is named as receiver or in other direct capacity. The aldermen have just taken action declaring the franchise of the water company forfeited and the company has ten days to make reply.

On account of newly discovered evidence, which tends to show that the prisoner was not guilty, and upon the recommendation of the trial judge, the solicitor and the principal State's witness, many county officers and others, Governor Kitchin grants a pardon to John Mitchell, who has served since January, 1911, in Pitt county, on a three years' sentence to the roads for larceny. However, the pardon is conditioned on the future good behavior of the prisoner.

At the request of the judges interested, Governor Kitchin has issued special commissions whereby there will be exchanges of courts and where by Judge J. L. Webb will hold Gaston court September 9th; Mecklenburg September 22d; November 25th and December 2nd; Lincoln December 19th; and Judge Daniels will hold Bertie court September 9th; Warren, September 16th and Halifax November 25th.

Following the suit instituted by W. H. Pace, for the city of Raleigh, against the Wake Water Co., for forfeiture of the franchise of the company for failure to provide adequate equipment and pure water, Powell & Powell Company for themselves, and other creditors of the Wake Water Company, began suit for receiver to be appointed for the company today with Col. J. W. Hinesdale, as counsel and made application tonight to Judge Foushee, at Durham, for a receiver to be appointed. The water situation is unimproved and sentiment is developing for the city to take over the plant and invest half a million dollars bond issue in improvements in enlarging and equipping an adequate plant.

ENGINEER CLIFTON INJURED

In Hospital at Dunn—Personal and Other Items in Harnett

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Dunn, N. C., Aug. 29.—Captain Engineer, engineer for the Durham & Southern, was seriously hurt last Monday by being thrown from his engine by some of the levers. He sustained several broken bones and will be confined to the hospital for some time. He is being treated at the Central Sanatorium.

Mr. R. E. Lee, an appointee of Congressman H. L. Gresham, of West Point, has returned to take up his studies, after spending some time at home.

Mr. C. E. Felton, formerly of Dunn, now soliciting agent for the S. A. L., with headquarters at Savannah, has been spending some time with his mother.

Mr. J. T. Williams, of Cooper, went to Richmond yesterday for treatment. This is his second trip and his friends are hoping that the cure will be permanent.

J. G. Layton, Geo. M. Floyd, Sam Strickland and Prof. L. L. Duncan ran an excursion to Raleigh yesterday for a day in the Capital City. They carried eight cars filled to overflowing with citizens of Sweet Sampson and Harnett. One of the party says there was not an intoxicated man on the train, going or coming. Now who said prohibition was no good?

Miss Slocumb Smith, who has been spending the Summer with her mother at Montreat, has returned home and is getting ready to assume her duties as teacher in the Wilson graded schools.

The Dunn graded school will not open on September 15th, as usual, as the school building is being enlarged and many improvements made. It is thought now that it will open about October 1st.

DEEP AND TURKEY

Game Abounds in the Roanoke River District

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Rich Square, N. C., Aug. 29.—The hunting season is now open and some of our sports at Rich Square, Roxobel and Keifer are enjoying hunting deer on the Roanoke river and have been fairly successful. Deer are usually quite numerous on the Roanoke but the large freshets last Spring which covered the lowlands for many days, frightened the deer and deer and roamed some of the young. Not only deer but wild turkeys and other wild game abound in the extensive wooded districts bordering the Roanoke between Weldon and the south.

Hardly one-tenth of the land is under cultivation. Before the Civil War these lands were cultivated in corn and wheat and large quantities were shipped to Northern markets, but now most of the land under cultivation is planted in cotton and peanuts and much western corn and hay is bought to feed the teams but hunting and fishing is good and indulged in the year round, not by the landlords, but by the residents of the sand hills or piney woods.

MOOSE FOR MAJ. STEDMAN

Williamson or Robertson May Oppose Him in Fifth District

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 29.—Rumors that Major Charles M. Stedman would be returned to Congress from the Fifth district, without Republican opposition, were given a death blow last night with the announcement of a call for a meeting of the district convention of Republicans in this city September 17th. Notwithstanding the district was represented two years ago by a Republican, now State Chairman John Motley Morehead, there had been a persistent rumor that a Republican candidate would be named to make the campaign against Major Stedman. Likely material for the Republican side is said to be James N. Williamson, Jr., of Burlington, and head of the Roosevelt movement in the State, and Ben S. Robertson, of this city, a well known river manufacturer. Mr. Robertson is a member of the Republican State committee, but there is a well authenticated report that he contemplates tendering his resignation as such that he may enlist in the progressive ranks.

DURHAM TIGERS

Judge Whedbee Giving Trial to Number of Defendants This Week

Durham, Aug. 28.—Judge Whedbee has been doing a record-breaking business in the trial of criminals in the Superior Court this week. He disposed of a total of 75 cases during the first two days. He has the negro whiskey sellers scared half to death for he has not failed to put the sentence on them when the jury found them guilty, and the twelve men have not failed to convict a great number.

Two negro women, who appealed from a few months' sentence by the recorder for breaking into a white woman's house, were found guilty by the jury and were given four years each in the pen. Willie Southland, a negro, charged with highway robbery, was sent to the pen for ten years.

Freckle-Face

New Remedy That Removes Freckles or Costs Nothing.

Here's a chance Miss Freckle-Face, to try a new remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles, while if it does give you a clear complexion, the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of ointment—double strength, from any first-class druggist in the city of Wilmington and one night's treatment will show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case. Be sure to ask any first-class druggist in the city of Wilmington for the double strength ointment, as this is the only prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

LIBEL CHARGE IN CAMPAIGN

Capt. James D. McNeill Placed Under Bond in Cumberland Superior Court—Gives Bond From Day to Day

Fayetteville, N. C., Aug. 29.—A decided sensation was injected into the Cumberland county campaign this morning when the grand jury at the present term of Superior Court, Judge Bragaw presiding, returned two true bills against Capt. James D. McNeill for libel of Q. K. Nimocks, his opponent for the State Senate from the district composed of this county and Hoke county.

Capt. McNeill passed up his personal check for $1,000 as bond for his appearance from day to day in court. Though it is hardly expected that the case will be called for trial at this time, the libel complaint was in circulation distributed and in a letter published in the Hoke County Journal, in which McNeill attacks Nimocks' private character and makes grave charges of dishonest business dealing, as reasons why Nimocks should not be elected State Senator of the 13th Senatorial District, for which office both gentlemen are aspirants.

It is understood that Mr. Nimocks has also notified the publisher of the Hoke County Journal that he must apologize for the publication of the letter in his paper, or take the consequences.

Since Capt. McNeill received a majority in Hoke county for the Senate the past week, the campaign between the gentlemen named has been waged with relentless fury. It is stated that Mr. Nimocks went before the grand jury today and secured the bills against Capt. McNeill, who says that he will be able to take care of the issue when it comes into court. The primaries for this county are to be held next Wednesday and the campaign from now until that date will be decidedly heated.

In the Observer this afternoon Mr. Nimocks is out in a statement to the citizens of Cumberland county in which he disclaims having made any personal attack on his opponent, and adds:

"Without provocation or cause, save that I had dared oppose him for the Senate, he has seen fit to make a most wicked and malicious assault on my personal integrity, charging me with being dishonest, crooked in business, defrauding creditors, trying to rob my former insurance partner, etc."

"The brazen, ruthless and persistent manner in which he makes and circulates these charges, constrains me in this public manner to brand them separately and collectively as wilful and malicious lies, circulated for the deliberate purpose of trying to destroy my character, and defeating me at the primaries for State Senator."

"I shall prefer a charge of criminal libel against him and all other persons known to me aiding and abetting in the circulation of his false and malicious slanders."

To this Mr. Nimocks subjoins a card which he published in 1903 in reply to similar attacks from Capt. McNeill with regard to the dissolution of the firm of Nimocks & Cook, insurance agents, and settlement between the partners, Messrs. Nimocks and A. J. Cook, which seems to have been by arbitration, a receipt in full being given by Mr. Cook as published.

How The Body Kills Germs.

Germs that get into the body are killed in two ways—by the white corpuscles of the blood, and by a germ-killing substance that is in the blood. Just what this substance is, we do not know. The blood of a healthy person always has some germ-killing substance in it to ward off the attack of disease. The fountain head of life is the stomach. A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished. To put the body in healthy condition, to feed the system on rich, red blood and throw out the poisons from the body, nothing in the past forty years has excelled Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a pure glyceric extract (without alcohol), of bloodroot, golden seal and Oregon grape root, stone root, mandrake and queen's root with black cherry bark.

"My husband was a sufferer from stomach trouble and impure blood," writes Mrs. JAMES H. MARTIN, of Frankfort, Ky. "He had a sore on his face that would form a scab which would dry and drop off in about a month, then another would immediately form. It continued this way for a long time. He tried every remedy that any one would suggest but found no relief. He then tried Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery which completely cured him. He has stayed cured now for two years, and I recommend this valuable medicine for impurities of the blood."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules.

Send a Woodrow Wilson dollar to
The Star.

Most every man has put his foot
in it, but few are brave enough to confess it.

A man may invariably turn out a neat job and then not be able to make a decent living.

George Washington would not lie, but he didn't have to do it in order to keep from getting treed about his campaign fund.

It might get so that the people
will need to be recalled in South Carolina, for instance. It might save us from ourselves.

Most of us speculate on the political situation whether we can speculate on the Stock Exchange or not.
Of course, Wilson will be elected.

Governor Blease, of South Carolina, has demonstrated the fact that a man need not necessarily be politically buried as a result of grave
charges.

Some writer says: "President Taft
has a retiring disposition." Nevertheless he refused to show any disposition to retire and let Teddy have a third term.

The vacationists are vacating the mountains, but September and October are the finest months of the year
at the seashore. The surf is still fine
and the fishing season is at its height.

Mr. John D. Archbold, of the Standard Oil Company, after testifying about Teddy's campaign slush fund, immediately sailed for Europe. He did not want to stay here and read
the Rough Rider's remarks about him.

Some New York publishers propose to get out a book entitled "History
of Feminine Beauty in America." It will make other cities jealous to know that most of the beauties who will inspire the writer are Wilmington ladies.

"Be sure you are right and then go ahead" but don't go ahead and put your foot in it. Fight for the right
but occupy a sitting posture if you know the other fellow is prepared to lay you out. We recognize Davy Crockett in his because Davy was right.

The Chattanooga people doubtless
have demanded an outspoken paper,
and they have it in The Times, which took a strong position in the fight on Congressman John A. Mmon by Judge
Joe V. Williams for the Democratic nomination for Congress. The people can now realize the penalty inflicted on a paper for speaking out. Since the primary Judge Williams and his friends are publishing severe attacks
on the paper and are doing everything
in their power to break down its influence. No doubt some of the people who demand a paper with independence and boldness of expression are among those who are washing their hands of The Times.

Campaign subscriptions used eight years ago are like "chickens coming home to roost." We do not care
how much trouble they cause or whose defeat the slush fund business brings about now. The publicity given to old campaign scandals even
at this late day, emphasizes the enormity of the campaign methods which undermine the standard of citizenship
and give low and gross tone to the politics of the country. The man who profits from the biggest corruption fund ever raised to carry an election
is now creating clamor against it.
At the same time he depended upon a trust barrel to finance his campaign
for the Republican nomination for President.

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS.

At the request of and under authority of Robert Ewing chairman of the Press Contributions Bureau of the Democratic National Committee, Fifth Avenue Building, New York, the Star will be glad to receive, acknowledge and forward through the proper channels any and all contributions to the Woodrow Wilson Campaign Fund. These contributions will be either forwarded direct or through Hon. Josephus Daniels, Raleigh, N. C., National Committeeman from North Carolina and acknowledged also through the Raleigh News and Observer, through which agency Mr. H. C.
McQueen, of New Hanover, has already started the contributions from this county with a donation of $10. Other contributions will be acknowledged from day to day in these columns and forwarded promptly without cost to the donor.

"No wonder that public men and political parties often put themselves under monetary obligations to wealthy men and 'the interests.' The public at large knows that the battle is for their own good, and yet often hesitate to lend any monetary assistance."
"Having nominated Governor Wilson, shall we leave him embarrassed for necessary campaign funds? And if people at large won't subscribe to pay his campaign expenses (a contest made for them)
shall they go unpaid? Or if paid, shall they be paid by rich men, who would at least think they had a claim on the president if he were elected?"
"The large use of money by a few rich men or by corporations is the curse of our politics."

ONE MAN RULE

Governor Brown, of Georgia, vetoed
the railroad mileage bill recently passed
by the Legislature, basing his objection to the measure upon the ground of its unconstitutionality. For doing so the Governor has called down
upon his head a cyclone of popular and newspaper criticism, and the Atlanta Journal declares that the Governor's "ground" was only "a pretext"
and that his undoing of what the people's Legislature did "marked a usurpation of executive power that is, perhaps, without a parallel in the history of this or any other State." The Journal declares that "his act was not only a denial of the public rights, but also an impudent trespass upon the province of the courts."

The Georgia Governor probably has done the best he could as he sees with the lights before him. He is the Governor of all the people and it happens
that some of them have interests that need protection from some of the other people. The people need protection from the railroads and the railroads need protection from the people,
for the reason that some of the people who have stock and vested interests in the railroads have equal rights with those of all other people. The matter of rights is no one-sided affair, but our opinion is that where
rights are involved under the constitution it ought to be a case for the courts.

It is placing too much power in one man's hands to decide a case against the people acting through their chosen representatives. It is hardly to be presumed that the average Governor knows more than all the representatives of the people. However, it is both possible and quite likely that some Governors have the whole bunch skinned as to gray matter, but we would rather defer to the courts
which offer due process and carefully
consider all the rights and equities
in the contentions of the people.

No doubt the Governor of North Carolina is glad he hasn't got the veto power, for it saves him from a lot of worry and all kinds of ill-considered criticism. The Tar Heel Governor has the one-man pardoning power, but no doubt he would much prefer to see that power vested in a pardoning board. It would save him from an immense amount of unreasonable criticism. While our Governor has unlimited power to pardon, it must be remembered that he rarely, if ever, exercises it without the consent and advice of the trial judge, the trial solicitor, the trial jury, and a whole lot of petitioning people. Therefore, we rarely ever take any stock in criticisms of Governors for exercising the pardoning power. The blame ought to be put on the judicial and popular pressure which is often brought upon the Governor and which in many cases misleads him. Citizens too carelessly sign petitions, and those who do
so have no right to blame a Governor
who pays respect to their signatures.

The Governor has plenty to do without being bothered with pardons, and
besides it is too much power and responsibility to place in one man's hands the fate of a man who is about
to lose his life in the electric chair.
North Carolina ought to have a pardoning board to relieve the Governor,
and the Georgia Governor ought not to have the veto power to pass on legislative acts, which, properly, ought to be passed up to the courts. Just at the present time a lot of Georgians are so wrought up that they would "recall" the Governor if they could, but the rights of the people
clearly rest with the courts, if the people will only be satisfied not to recall the courts. The constitution and the courts may yet save us a great deal of trouble.

WHERE DO THEY GET THE MONEY?

Republicans pretend to be in favor
of publicity for campaign expenditures, but during all these eight years
efforts have been made to find out
how much money it took to elect Roosevelt, and up to date the whole truth has not yet come out. Men who are familiar with the facts are giving out some of the information under

oath, but there has been such a falling out over it as to indicate that all hands wish to avoid the responsibility and stigma. They are passing the lie
in order to shift the blame, whereas,
if it were an honorable transaction all would claim the credit. It makes no difference who knows about it or does not know about it, the fact that no
one cares to shoulder the blame shows
that the transaction was dishonorable
and scandalous.

In discussing the campaign funds in the present election year, the New Orleans States remarks:

"If reports be true, George W. Perkins is contributing sums to the campaign of the Bull Moose, but he is giving them from his own money, and
not from the funds of the corporations with which he is connected, and Munsey, the millionaire publisher, is doing likewise. But the most encouraging feature of the situation is that each party promises to publish its collections before elections."

Yet the publicity of the past has been so vague and veiled, that little
can be judged from the statements
about the campaign funds after the election. We are not prepared to believe that really trustworthy publicity
will be given before the election unless there were a severe penalty for falsifying the facts or misrepresenting
the amount of subscriptions. Where do they get the money? How much do they get? What do they do with the money?

We do not think it signifies as much
to give the amount expended in a campaign as to state the names of the subscribers and the amount of individual subscriptions. One party might spend $2,000,000 contributed by the people, while another might spend $2,000,000 contributed by the trusts.
It makes all the difference in the world whose money is spent and what it was spent for.

The days of fat-frying certainly ought to be over. A few days ago
Vice Chairman McAdoo, of the Democratic campaign committee, expressed
the view that the present campaign
for Wilson can be conducted on small subscriptions contributed by the people. That sounds better than to have Republican committees going around with sacks and hitting a plutocrat or
a magnate for a bad big enough to start a National bank.

WILMINGTONIAN FOR CONGRESS.

In the South Carolina primary election on Tuesday, the Hon. J. W.
Ragsdale was nominated for Congress from the Sixth District in opposition to Congressman Ellerbe who has served several terms in the House of Representatives. The Florence Times, which is published in the district which Mr. Ragsdale will represent, says this in referring to his triumph:

"We can all rejoice in the fact that
J. W. Ragsdale has been elected to Congress by so large a vote. We feel sure that he will prove a valuable acquisition in that body to the democratic party, and we feel sure that he will do his state and district credit
as well as his own credit."

"Rags" is a former Wilmingtonian,
and was some years ago a clerk in the general offices of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city. He was quite young then, but he was a brainy young man and we knew he would be heard from later. He started in early with the determination to make something out of himself and took up the study
of law in the evenings after he had finished his railroad duties. He located in South Carolina to practice law,
and he not only made a success at the bar but he has served Florence
county in both branches of the Legislature. He decided to go up higher and entered the race for Congress several years ago. If we mistake not
he has been defeated for the nomination twice at least, but he has landed at last. He has achieved something because he has made the most of his time.

This shows what a young man can do when he tries and keeps on trying. Mr. Ragsdale is about 35 years of age, and The Star congratulates him upon keeping right on staying in the game till he won. The Florence district will have no occasion to regret that it has honored J. W. Ragsdale.

Homeless persons in London on one night exceed 1,200 in number.

DR. KINGSBURY'S BIRTHDAY

The Star congratulates the venerable Dr. T. B. Kingsbury upon the celebration of his 84th birthday. Yesterday was the anniversary of the distinguished editor's birth, and it found him in good condition for one who has passed the four score mark. Dr.
Kingsbury is the State's oldest editor
and yet he wrote thirty years ago on the lines which are today receiving emphasis at the hands of every editor
in the country. The able editor was ahead of his time, and his birthday reminds us to say that he was not only the scholarly and fluent writer, but an editor of remarkable versatility and
great sweep of view.

The Star hopes he will be here
many more years and that he may rejoice in a Democratic administration
at Washington, to be elected almost in accordance with the principles
which his pen so clearly and vigorously advocated years ago.

Be careful how you rely upon the statements of other men, for lots of them do not hesitate to deny everything they have said. That is the reason a lawyer always looks around
for corroborative and circumstantial evidence to strengthen his case. Some men will make a statement off-hand
and swear exactly the opposite under oath.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Those who are not willing to get out of the Republican party might as well go ahead and vote for Mr. Taft and make as good a face over it as possible. The progressives will never be permitted to run the Republican party.
—Durham Herald.

The fact that Governor Gilchrist
has called an extraordinary session of the Legislature to meet October 1st,
to amend the charter of the city of Jacksonville in order to permit the city on the St. Johns to acquire necessary terminal facilities should carry
a lesson to the next Florida Legislature in regular session. The constitution of the State should permit cities of certain size, wealth and population, sufficient latitude in self-government to take such a necessary
step as the acquisition of terminals
without any special legislative action.
—Pensacola Journal.

The New York Herald a few days ago printed one of the best cartoons
we have ever seen. Mr. Roosevelt is pictured as in 1904 and 1912. The 1904 Mr. Roosevelt is attempting to shake hands and claim acquaintance with the 1912 Roosevelt, but the candidate of today, with a wave of the hand, says: "Sir, you have the advantage of me. I do not know you.
I refuse to recognize you." This is because the 1904 candidate has his baggage loaded with funds, marked
"collections by Penrose," "collections
by Bliss," "collections by Cortelyou."
The cartoon tells the story.—Durham
Sun.

At 11 o'clock last night 138,304 votes
had been reported as cast in last Tuesday's primary. Thirty three boxes remained unreported. Eleven hundred and ninety-eight boxes already reported had averaged 115 ballots each. Taking 115 as the average for the remaining boxes, 3,800 ballots would remain
to be added to the ballots reported, making a total for the State of 142,104. In other words, the inference would be that every white man above 21 years old in the State voted last Tuesday plus 295. If the white voting population of the State is 141,599, every white man whose name was not on the club roll, every white man who was sick, every un-naturalized white foreigner, every
white embeccle and lunatic of voting
age, every white convict, every white man who was outside of the State on election day, every white man who did not go to the polls, every white Republican and every white Socialist
must have counted to make the aggregate of 142,104 ballots reported
and to be reported as cast, plus 295.—
Columbia State.

THE SOCIAL EVIL AND ITS CAUSE

Editor Star:—The recent articles
appearing in your paper dealing with the suppression of the so-called
"social evil" has led me to offer a few remarks which I trust will be acceptable. I desire in the first place
to refer to the very able and forceful articles of Dr. Milton which appeared in your issue of July 28th, and which cannot be too highly commended. His logical and convincing the prevailing belief that resorts of ill repute are necessary evils, clearly sets forth what a shameful delusion
it is, in addition to the dread to the dreadful consequences that so often prove to be the sequel of this illicit traffic.

It is gratifying to know that Wilmington has recently undergone a severe purging, and the drastic measures adopted will undoubtedly go far towards purifying the moral atmosphere; yet we should also be mindful that every measure of reform when suddenly opposed to a congested state of public indifference
which had heretofore existed, should
while striving to remove the same,
also endeavor to ascertain the cause
of its prolific growth. Fallen womanhood owes its fall to some initial step,
and we can avert the step we can
more successfully avert the evil; consequently, while public clamor is in many instances most essential to bringing about the removal of an existing apathy, yet to annihilate spontaneously that which requires time
and thought to accomplish, very frequently only adds fuel to the flame instead of accomplishing that good originally contemplated, and we only increase a repetition, and this repetition
is usually on a more pronounced and extensive scale.

To return to the initial causes that lead so many of our girls to ruin, I have found in my experience that it is largely due to defective home training. The home being the cradle of the world, is therefore, naturally of great importance, and if that guardianship is defective, we become the innocent sufferers. There is hardly a defense to be offered for the wretched indifference that exists in the many homes

Go to Rehder's for Biggest Bargains!

Today, instead of striving to make them the centre of attraction, they are usually made the reverse; consequently there is an inclination on the part of the child to drift away, and in that drifting innocent girlhood is too frequently exposed to influences that gradually lead to indulgences that terminate in abodes of shame. It is not an uncommon sight to see young girls frequenting the sequestered
streets at night at hours quite unseasonable, their parents at home, and in many instances not knowing where they are, and possibly caring less.
consequently, to such causes can we attribute very largely the flourishing
growth of the underworld, and as long as such conditions prevail fresh recruits are daily furnished and will be furnished until a wide and extensive awakening takes place in the homes of our land, and it does appear that no
hour is more auspicious than the present to support what I have said.

I can cite several instances where I have seen young girls visiting the abodes of vice, and especially in some instances which appeared to me most pitiful. I distinctly counted 15 girls
in one establishment ranging in age from 10 to 17 years. They "dropped in," as they expressed it, "for a good time." Surely this is a case of robbing the cradle. I inquired of one what possibly could induce her to visit such a place and she replied
that she was the sole support of a sick mother and that her earnings
were not sufficient to defray the necessary expenses. How deplorable it is that such conditions should exist
in our Christian midst. However, Wilmington does not stand alone, and in justice it can be said that she is more free from this great stigma than
many other cities of equal size.

In visiting one of our Southern seaports a few years ago whose population was estimated at about 40,000,
I found to my astonishment 135 places
of ill repute. Of these 87 were places of established patronage, while 38
represented places visited by girls
otherwise employed. Upon inquiry
as well as by observation I ascertained that these girls were employed in some of the large department stores,
others in factories, some in dress-
making establishments, and so on.
The excuse usually offered was insufficient salaries, which to a large degree was responsible for the existing state of affairs, though you often find that an inordinate desire for finery and not really absolute necessity induces a girl to seek this course
for the gratification of their desire of luxury. Under any and all conditions the fact remains we should use
our best efforts and direct our energies towards this initial stage, and while I strongly advocate a house of refuge in every city, it would also be
most advisable for the good citizens
to form an organization in addition to those societies already engaged in this special work, and personally visit
the establishments employing female labor and acquaint themselves with the private conditions of these employees, their habits and mode of living, and by doing so it is not unreasonable to suppose that this lifting
of the veil which now conceals so much
of which the majority of our people are ignorant, of many a good; yet deluded creature could be spared the misery of that closing hour of shame
which inevitably must sooner or later
be her portion if even the fatal step
is taken without recourse to a better,
higher, and more noble life.

MAMMOTH DEAL CLOSED

Check For $145,000 Completed Worth Property Transaction Yesterday—Three Sales Already Made From the Tract.

By the passage of a certified check for $145,000, signed by the Fidelity Trust & Development Company, D. N. Chadwick, Jr., treasurer, and counter-signed by C. E. Greenamyer, president, and made payable to W. E. Worth, Geo. C. Worth and Jno. D. Bellamy, receivers for Worth & Worth, the final details of what is said to be the largest real estate transaction ever made in Wilmington were closed, and the deeds were filed for record yesterday afternoon. In connection with the closing of the deal the company announces several important notes from the property.

The property sold by the Worth estate lies on the north side of Grace street, beginning at a point 198 feet west of Front street, and running thence to the channel of the Cape Fear river. It extends northward 200 or more feet and is bisected by the street. The property lies in the heart of the wholesale district of the city. The total price for the property was $150,000, of which $5,000 was paid some months ago.

It will be remembered that the transaction was announced some months ago in The Star, and while the deal was consummated at that time the actual formalities of the transfer had to be completed. The delay was occasioned by reason of the fact that several legal features had to be passed on by the courts before the transfer could be made.

To two enterprising firms the credit for the big deal belongs, the Fidelity Trust & Development Company, which purchased the property, and the A. W. Pate real estate agency, which sold it. Messrs. A. W. Pate and J. J. Loughlin devoted several months of their time exclusively to the tremendous proposition, and they are now amply rewarded, for aside from the handsome commission which they receive, they will have the distinction of having engineered probably the biggest real estate transaction ever made in Wilmington. Messrs. Pate and Loughlin, both well known business men, have thoroughly demonstrated their ability to handle the biggest kind of deal.

The re-organized Fidelity Trust & Development Company, which is a comparatively new corporation in this city, with Mr. C. E. Greenamyer, a well known Pittsboro, Pa., banker and business man at its head, and who has associated with him Mr. D. N. Chadwick, Jr., and several other well known young business men, most eloquently proves its faith in Wilmington and its future by the deal closed yesterday. The officers of the company, as well as its directors and stockholders, are of the opinion that this city has before it prospects that are unexcelled by any other port on the South Atlantic coast, and they are working with the idea of doing their part to aid in the commercial expansion and development of the city's natural resources.

As soon as the deeds for the property were signed yesterday the Fidelity Trust & Development Company announced three important sales made from the property. One parcel was sold to Mr. C. C. Chabourn, another to Mr. R. C. Wright and still another to Swift & Company. The property purchased by Mr. Chabourn is that on which the Worth & Worth and the Brown, Toon & Co. buildings are located. It is situated on the northwest corner of Nutt and Grace streets and is 64.85x122 feet in size. The consideration is said to have been in the neighborhood of $30,000. Mr. Chabourn stated last night that he purchased the property solely as investment and that he would hold it and rent the buildings, awaiting the advance in prices which he is sure will come.

Mr. Wright purchased the property on which the building occupied by Armour & Co. is located. It is on Nutt street, 119.7 feet north of Grace and is 55.75x122 feet in size, and the consideration was $20,000. The O. H. Wright Company occupies a building just across Nutt street opposite the property purchased by Mr. Wright yesterday, and he stated last night that the company would move into the newly acquired building in the near future.

Swift & Company occupy the building which they purchased, and they will continue to do so. It is located on the west side of Nutt, 64.85 feet north of Grace. The price they paid for the property was $16,500. This deal, it will be remembered, was announced in The Star some time ago.

The Fidelity Trust & Development Company has remaining of the Worth property, a lot and building known as the Lime House property, on Nutt, adjoining the Armour & Co. building, 21.1x123 feet in size; a 30-foot right-of-way through the property, on which the Atlantic Coast Line has a lease; and the property on the river front, occupied by the Clyde Line docks and warehouses.

The latter property was reported sold some months ago, but the deal was never consummated. The property fronts 200 feet on the river and extends back nearly 500 feet to Water street. It is understood that several steamboat lines are negotiating for the property and that there is a probability that another line will come in to the city.

An Interesting Visitor.
An interesting visitor to the city yesterday was Mr. Andrew Moore, of Currie, N. C. Mr. Moore is 35 years old and rejoices in 180 grand and great grand children. He is in good health, is active and interesting and is always welcomed by his hundreds of friends in Wilmington. He came down on business with The Stone Company, of whom he is accounted one of the firm's best customers.

YESTERDAY BROKE RECORDS

Deeds Filed for Record Represent Very Large Amounts.

Yesterday was the banner day in the history of New Hanover county, from the point of the amount of money represented in the deeds filed for record. Thirteen papers were filed and they represent in money more than $250,000, roundly speaking. These figures have never before been equalled in one day's registration. It is said. The papers filed yesterday were as follows:

Geo. C. Worth and others to Fidelity Trust & Development Company, for $150,000, lot on north side of Mulberry, or Grace street, 198 feet west of Front street and on Cape Fear river. Fidelity Trust & Development Company to Swift & Co., for $16,500, lot on west side of Nutt, 55 feet north of Grace street.

Fidelity Trust & Development Company to Roland A. Wright, for $20,000, lot on west side of Nutt, 119.7 feet north of Grace, 55.75x122 feet in size. Fidelity Trust & Development Company to C. C. Chabourn, for $30,000 and other considerations, lot on north-west corner of Nutt and Grace streets, 64.85x122 feet in size.

Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr., administrator, to D. L. Gore, for $7,156.60, eight tracts in Harnett township, containing in all about 1,321 acres. Merritt Walker and wife to D. L. Gore, for $71,000 and other considerations, same property as transferred by Jno. D. Bellamy, Jr., administrator.

Roland A. Wright to Fidelity Trust & Development Company, for $15,000, lot on east side of Fourth street, 66 feet south of Chesnut street, 66x165 feet in size.

Melvin Brooks and others to Besie Sanders, for $10 and other considerations, lot on west side of Front, 156 feet north of Wooster.

Nonie F. King and Mrs. Katie B. Corbett, for $100 and other considerations, lots 10 and 12 in block 5, Love Grove.

B. M. Wilson to Geo. Honnet and wife, for $10 and other considerations, lot on southeast corner of Third and Meares streets, 90x99 feet in size.

Warren S. Johnson and wife to E. G. Story and wife, for $100 and other considerations, lot on Red Cross, 74 feet east of Fifth street, 22.3x266 feet in size.

Warren S. Johnson and wife to Jno. Taylor, for $100 and other considerations, lot on Red Cross, 96.2-3 feet east of Fifth street, 22.3x266 feet in size.

Southern Realty & Development Company to H. Cole, Jr., for $10 and other considerations, lots 67 and 68, in Lake Side Park.

Another extraordinary feature at the Register of Deeds' office yesterday was the fact that three very old deeds, dated July 28th, 1855, May 10, 1858, and January 19th, 1859, respectively, were filed. The deeds represent transfers in these old deeds had been made years ago, and the property has changed hands a number of times since, but the deeds had never been filed for record.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Several Road and Farm Sentences Yesterday—Other Cases.

Duffy Jackson and Annie Crowder, a lady maid and maid, played the tell-tale role in the Recorder's court yesterday morning, being found guilty of engaging in an affray in which deadly weapons were used. Duffy was sentenced to six months on the county roads and Annie will spend the next three months on the county farm. The case was a disgraceful one, and the conduct and will help maintain Duffy, who is slightly high tempered and who believes that no gentleman will hit a lady with his hand, essayed to bounce a brick off Annie's head. The brick missed Annie but it knocked a hole in the door in front of which she was standing. Of course Annie was not going to see her property damaged in this manner, and she retaliated by cracking a quart bottle over Duffy's kinky poll.

W. B. Land, colored, was convicted of "toting" a pistol and was sent to the road to serve three months. Annie Hilton (Coburn), was found guilty of disorderly conduct and will help reap the harvest on the county farm for the next 90 days.

Chas. Turner and Alex. McKee, colored, were tried on charges of vagrancy. The cases were left open for judgment until today. Major Williams and Josephine Boney were charged with the larceny of a watch from Mr. W. M. Howey. The watch, with Mr. Howey's name upon it, was found in Williams' possession, but he stated that he had received the watch from Josephine Boney as a guarantee for a loan he had made her. The cases were continued until today.

Chas. Delatch, colored, charged with vagrancy, was also continued until today. C. Johnson, colored, was charged with disorderly conduct, assault with a deadly weapon and resisting an officer. The negro was arrested by Special Officer R. S. Haddock on the Coast Line excursion train returning from Columbia near Pee Dee, Wednesday night, was brought to this city early yesterday morning, and sent to the hospital for repairs. He was considerably the worse for wear, the officer and others having been forced to beat him up pretty badly to subdue him. As the offenses were committed in South Carolina the Recorder's court here had no jurisdiction. However, the cases were continued in order to give Assistant City Attorney Geo. L. Peschman time to confer with the Coast Line attorneys as to what course they desire to pursue in the matter.

MEET HERE MONDAY.
The Semi-Annual Convention of the Rural Carriers' Association.

The semi-annual convention of the Eastern District Association of Rural Letter Carriers will be held in this city Monday. The meeting will be held in the old Masonic hall, on Market street, between Front and Second.

Six counties are embraced in the association and it is expected that each will be represented by several carriers. Delegates who attended the State convention in Asheville will make report and there will be other interesting features. Mr. R. F. Gore is president and Mr. D. G. Ward is vice president of the association. The next State convention is to be held in this city and the carriers at the meeting Monday will probably name committees to have charge of the arrangements for the gathering.

CITY MAY RETAIN PROPERTY

Unlikely That Any Portion of the Old Tobacco Warehouse Lot Will Be Sold—Incinerator Committee Investigates.

For the purpose of personally looking over the ground in order that they may be in better position to vote on the proposition when it comes up, members of the City Council yesterday morning went in Mayor Smith's automobile to the old tobacco warehouse property and inspected the site proposed by Councilman B. C. Moore for the incinerator that is to be installed jointly by the city and county. While nothing definite was decided, it is said that the Councilmen appeared to regard the proposed site as about as good as could be found for the plant.

The members present practically decided not to place any of the old tobacco warehouse property on the market, but to hold the entire lot, as they believe the property is bound to increase in value in the near future. At the regular meeting Wednesday something was said about selling off about half of the property and keeping the remainder for the use of the city, but after the visit yesterday the Councilmen realized that while the price paid was high enough at the time, yet the city got a good bargain and that it is worth more money today than when it was purchased.

The joint meeting of the City Council and the County Commissioners planned for today to take formal action on the matter of buying an incinerator and letting contract for same, has been postponed until next Monday, on account of the absence from the city of Mr. M. W. Divine, a member of the Board of Commissioners. There seems to be no doubt but that an incinerator will be installed.

A special meeting of Council will be held at noon today for the purpose of opening bids for furnishing the city labor and materials for the fiscal year ending May 31st, 1912. Bids are to be received for hay and grain, shoeing mules and horses, lighting the city with gas and electricity, furnishing lumber for printing, stationery and advertising, for repairing and lighting gas and oil lamps and furnishing oil for the latter, for crushed stone and granite curbing, for brick—common and vitrified—lime, ice, coal cement, and terra cotta pipe.

RECEIVER FOR HIGHWOOD PARK
Wilmington Driving Association Has Been Adjudged Insolvent.

An order of court in the case of K. C. Sidbury vs. the Wilmington Driving Association adjudging the corporation insolvent and appointing Geo. L. Peschman, Esq., receiver, to take charge of and hold the effects of the defendant until the final hearing, was received at the office of the Clerk of Superior Court yesterday morning. The order was signed by Judge Frank "Doc" at Kingston and is dated August 20th. The receiver is to give $500 bond.

Some weeks ago Mr. Sidbury, who was for a time secretary of the Wilmington Driving Association, brought an action against the corporation "in behalf of himself and other creditors of the defendant, who may come in and make themselves parties to the action and contribute to the expenses thereof." He set forth in the complaint that the corporation was due him $690 with interest from October 1st, 1910, "which said indebtedness was created for motor car supplies and money furnished in the construction and erection of its place of entertainment and amusements at Highwood Park." He alleges that the corporation is insolvent.

Judge Carter found as a fact that the corporation is insolvent and upon motion of A. C. Richmond, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, the court appointed Mr. Peschman as receiver. The hearing may be held at the next civil term of court.

The Wilmington Driving Association, which was chartered about two years ago, has a lease on the Highwood Park grounds, near Winter Park, in the suburban line, the property being owned by Dr. Morris M. Caldwell, who was president of the driving association.

NEW EXPRESS SERVICE.

Office Will be Opened at Southport Monday—Other News Notes.

Yesterday's Southport News has the following items of interest here: "Capt. Bussell having sold his interests in the Ocean Fisheries Company, Capt. Winder has arrived to assume charge of the plant. It is reported that Capt. Bussell will engage in the fishing business, being now on a trip in the Delaware Breakwater on his steamer, the Nellie Day." "The News makes efforts for a rail road excursion from Wilmington to Southport Labor Day. The W. B. & S. Railroad officials were in favor, but could not obtain cars. It seems that the A. C. L. alone, is short 64 cars for Labor Day, and several excursions had to be given up."

"Answering the inquiry of Mr. Geo. W. Autry in last week's News, the officials of the W. B. & S. Railroad inform us that an express office will be opened in Southport September 1st."

"It would have been opened earlier, but a change of tariff rates has been made. September 1st would have been called too much work during the short time the rates would run and then change over."

"Southport people will appreciate the privilege of the express service, the lack of which has been a drawback as well as an expense."

"After September 1st packages can be sent to Southport by the South-eastern Express, W. B. & S. Railroad."

STANDS BY HIS STATEMENT

Joseph W. Little, Esq., Issues Card Setting Forth His Position in Opposing Postmaster Thos. E. Wallace.

Upon his return yesterday from Raleigh, where he had been to argue cases before the Supreme Court, Joseph W. Little, Esq., issued a statement setting forth his connection with the reported opposition of a number of postoffice clerks to the confirmation of the re-appointment of Mr. T. E. Wallace as postmaster. Mr. Little says that he was employed as attorney in the matter, being approached by at least three clerks, and that it was represented to him that 10 or 12 clerks were desirous of having the appointment held up.

The day following publication of the fact that telegrams had been sent Senator Lee S. Overman by Mr. Little as attorney for postoffice clerks asking that the appointment be held up in the Senate, 12 clerks in the local postoffice issued a statement in which they disclaimed any connection whatever in the reported fight on the postmaster and it was said that the six others approached declined to sign only on the ground that they had not been brought in the affair and did not want to have their names appear in it at all. The statement was also signed by 16 of the letter carriers. Mr. Little's statement is as follows:

Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 29, 1912.
Editor Star: On my return to the city after two days absence in the Supreme Court at Raleigh, my attention has been called to an article appearing in yesterday's Star, relating to my connection with the case against Thos. E. Wallace, postmaster at Wilmington.

I was consulted by at least three of the postoffice clerks, who informed me that at least ten or twelve of the clerks were anxious to have the appointment of Wallace held up. Why they came to me, I do not know, but they came and put me in possession of the facts and asked me to help them. I volunteered my legal services in the matter after they represented to me that a majority of the clerks were interested in the matter. I know the clerks, or a majority of them, to be men in moderate circumstances, with families to support, and after being advised of the conditions under which they work, I gladly volunteered to represent them in the matter. Upon the representations made to me the telegram below was sent to Senator Overman:

"Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 26, 1912.
Hon. Lee S. Overman, Washington, D. C.

"I represent majestically clerks in postoffice Wilmington. They are prepared to prove that Wallace is totally unfit to be postmaster. Will file charges now or later as you advise. Answer. 'JOS. W. LITTLE, ATTY.'"

"Washington, D. C., Aug. 26, 1912.
"J. W. Little, Atty., Wilmington, N. C.

"Wallace will not be confirmed. No need to send charges. This session."

"PERSONALLY I know nothing of the actual number of clerks interested in the matter, but depended upon statement made to me, and also furnished in the telegram above."

"I am still informed that the number quoted in the telegram is correct and that time will demonstrate it."

"JOS. W. LITTLE"

A CLEVER SWINDLE

Mission Pharmacy Worked for $4 in Cold Cash Last Night.

Although not entirely new, the same game having been tried on a number of merchants here several years ago, a clever swindle was worked on the Mission Pharmacy early last night. Shortly before 8 o'clock a telephone message reached the proprietor, Mr. L. B. Sasser, stating that Mr. C. L. Spooner was at the phone and to send at once to 121 Market street a box of Au Guth's candy. The man at the other end of the line stated that he had nothing less than a $5 bill and to please send $4 in change so that he could pay the boy and to send in a hurry as the speaker had an engagement and must leave at once. Boy less than a block of the store the colored errand boy was quickly dispatched with the candy and the change. Arriving there the boy met a dark complexioned young man in the hallway the light downstairs having been turned off, evidently for the purpose of the scheme as it later developed. Handing the man the candy and the change, the young man stated that he would have to go inside the house to get the bill and saying so, he disappeared out the back door, the apartments being the boarding house of a Mrs. Spooner with a hall on the first floor opening immediately on the street, with rooms upstairs. The boy waited but in vain; the young man did not appear again. Investigation revealed that none of the family occupying the house was at home at the time and this was taken advantage of by the stranger, who is described as wearing a dark suit, dark complexioned and dark hair. The matter was reported to the police station and investigation is being made.

Holiday on the Wharf.

On account of Labor Day wholesale merchants on the wharf have agreed to close their places of business at 1 o'clock Monday. This will give proprietors and all employees an opportunity of joining in the observance and festivities of the day. It is understood that the Coast Line general offices will also observe half holiday on Monday.

Reduced Rates Promised.
The Star is requested by telegraph from Greensboro to announce that reduced railroad rates will be given on all lines for the Progressive Convention in that city, September 3rd, 1912. Leaders of the movement in this State are working for a large attendance at the convention.

Talk of Beard Walk.

A board walk on the ocean side of the island from a point opposite the Oceanic Hotel, on the north, to Lumina, on the south, is among the possibilities for Wrightsville Beach before the opening of next season.

Several property holders have been approached by a visiting promoter as to the advisability of a board walk. It is said that a local architect has been asked for estimates as to the cost of the walk, booths, etc. The idea would be to have booths at different points along the walk were novelties, post cards, soft drinks etc., could be sold. There is no doubt but that a board walk would be an added attraction for Wrightsville Beach and it is hoped that the proposition will materialize.

Early last evening Chief of Police Fowler received a telegram from Chief of Police C. G. Kizer, of Norfolk, reading: "I hold warrant for felony against Wm. A. Davis, 106 Orange street. Arrest and advise whether he will come without papers." Chief Fowler has made it a rule never to arrest a person wanted in another city or State without knowing the specific charge. He therefore telegraphed the Norfolk chief to furnish him this information. A second telegram from the Norfolk officer read: "We hold warrant charging Davis with larceny of $100. Arrest him. Hold for us and advise whether he will come without papers."

Mr. Davis was arrested on a warrant issued by Chief Fowler based upon the information contained in the telegram. The statute under which the arrest was made requires that the defendant be committed to prison without bond pending arrival of an officer from the State in which the defendant is wanted.

WANTED IN NORFOLK

Well-Known Wilmingtonian Arrested On Serious Charge.

In response to a telegraphic request from the chief of police of Norfolk, Chief of Police John J. Fowler caused the arrest of Mr. Wm. A. Davis, a well-known young Wilmingtonian, at his home, No. 106 Orange street, and he is being held pending arrival of an officer from the Virginia city, where he will be required to answer a charge of larceny. Mr. Davis expressed his willingness to return to Norfolk without extradition papers. He stated to officers that while in Norfolk a few days ago he gave a draft and that it is presumed that the paper was returned unendorsed and that this is the basis of the charge.

Early last evening Chief of Police Fowler received a telegram from Chief of Police C. G. Kizer, of Norfolk, reading: "I hold warrant for felony

PRETTY HOME WEDDING

CELEBRATED YESTERDAY

A pretty home wedding of much interest to a large number of friends was solemnized at 2:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's uncle, Mr. C. P. Newton, No. 505 Castle street, when Miss Elizabeth Bell Newton, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Newton, and Mr. Walter Horne, plighted their troth. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street Methodist church, and there were present a large number of relatives and friends.

Miss Lucile Walton rendered the wedding march very skillfully. Miss Miriam Newton, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. William Horne, brother of the groom, was best man. Little Miss Evelyn Newton, also a sister of the bride, was ring bearer. The guests were received by Miss Annie Horne, sister of the groom, and Miss Margaret Hewitt, cousin of the bride. The bride was handsomely attired in a tan tulle suit with hat to match. The maid of honor wore white Marquisette over silk, and the little ring bearer also wore white. The home was very elaborately decorated with potted plants and vines. Many beautiful and costly wedding presents were received by the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Horne left on the 3:15 Coast Line for their bridal tour, visiting several points of interest in Western North Carolina. Upon their return they will make their home with the groom's mother, who now resides six miles below the city.

CRAWFORD BIGGS APPOINTED.

Succeeds Editor Josephus Daniels on Advisory Committee.

(Special Star Telegraph.) Raleigh, N. C., August 29.—National Committee-man Josephus Daniels has resigned as a member of the North Carolina State Democratic Advisory Committee and State Chairman Charles A. Webb tonight appointed Ex-Judge J. Crawford Biggs to succeed Editor Daniels. Mr. Daniels is resigning from the advisory committee because this action is necessitated by his having to be so constantly at Democratic National headquarters in New York. He thinks the place should go to some one who can devote more time to the North Carolina campaign needs. At the same time he assures Chairman Webb of his best effort in whatever service he can render. North Carolina already, he says, assured of a tremendous majority he feels justified in concentrating his effort on the National campaign.

GOV. WILSON TO FARMERS.

Speaks at Meeting of Growers at Williams Grove, Pa., August 29.

Governor Wilson in a speech at a farmers' rally here today talked of the farmers' share of prosperity with existing tariff laws.

He said in part: "It is strange that we should have put off so long looking into our government to see whether it is in fact run according to the rules originally laid down for it, but it is certain that we are now looking into it very sharply indeed, and without the least danger that we shall be deceived again as to its character. Our idea of it has been from the first that it was a genuine partnership and that all were upon one footing and were to share alike."

"But a very interesting thing has come to light. That is not in fact the way the government has been administered in our time. It has been in the hands of self-constituted trustees and the partners have seldom been allowed a real governing voice in its administration."

"We had supposed that we were conducting the national business along the lines laid down by Jefferson, but we find that as a matter of fact we have been conducting it along the lines laid down by Hamilton. Hamilton believed that the common run of men had little qualification for such business, that it could be really comprehended and wisely directed by those who were in commercial and industrial enterprises and owned chief bodies of property in the country. And in our time the leaders of the Republican party have consciously or unconsciously adopted his notion."

"These men financed party campaigns and were always on the inside of party policy was to be determined. Tariff schedules, the foreign policy of the country, the chief expenditures of the government, everything went as they suggested while the rank and file of us fared as might and were happy if we had any small share in the prosperity which they garnered for themselves. They were the trustees; we were their wards and took part in the common life as they planned and directed. What went on in the trustee meetings we were very seldom allowed to learn—learned indeed only by impertinent inquiry, only by congressional investigation or trials in court which the trustees complained sadly interfered with the regular course of business."

"Mr. Roosevelt has proclaimed himself a convert to the protective policy—I say convert because he at one time very frankly avowed a different opinion—and has said that while we admitted that, no doubt, some duties were to be paid, and ought to be lowered, on the whole the policy pursued by Republican administrations had been the right one; and he thought the 'prize money' which had been received under that system by the manufacturers of the country was legitimate booty."

"The analogy is a very interesting one. Prize money is generally acquired by capture and not by process of earning, but Mr. Roosevelt is always frank and says that his only objection to the system is that too much of the prize money remains in the hands of the officers and too little of it is distributed to the crew. His own object he vows to be to see to it that more of the prize money gets into the pay envelopes of those whom the freebooters employ. The interesting point I wish to raise now is who supplies the plunder, from whom is the prize money taken?"

"The present Democratic Congress had the old-fashioned idea of government. They supposed that its benefits and protections were to be distributed and equally shared. It introduced and passed a bill which became known as the farmer's free list bill. That bill put many indispensable things on the free list. Most prominent among them were agricultural implements, because the American farmer pays more for his agricultural implements than any other farmer in the world. The American manufacturers who make agricultural implements sell them much cheaper on the other side of the water. On the other side they undersell the local manufacturers of agricultural implements, and prove their eagerness for the foreign business and their rapid expansion of it that they can afford to do so even at the additional cost of the ocean freights. It was a very natural act on the part of the Democratic Congress therefore to put agricultural implements on the free list, to put fence wire also on the free list and the bagging and ties which the Southern farmer needs and uses for his cotton. It added lumber and laths and shingles and hoes, and balts and meads, thinking not of the farmer alone but of all of us who are struggling to live and pay our bills. But such changes did not comport with the ideas and plans of the trustees and the president vetoed the free list. I dare say he was right from his point of view, for he represented the trustees and not the people."

"The trustees represent also the big bankers in whose hands our banking system lies to be manipulated and no Republican administration, no Republican Congress, has attempted to serve the farmer as he ought to be served in the matter of credits. It is practically impossible for the farmer to borrow money on the kind of securities ordinarily demanded at the banks. It does not serve his purpose to borrow it for the short periods insisted upon by most bankers. He needs, rather, long credits, and he needs them on his own kind of security. He can't be mortgaged for his farm every time he needs a little money. Other countries have discovered how to assist him. An admirable system of agricultural societies has been developed in Ireland, and an excellent one in Germany, and the present Democratic Congress has done nothing better than to provide for a careful investigation of this subject with a view to early action, so that the law may be fitted to the creation of these new instruments of business which the farmer so much needs and ought to have."

Canada's growing population and prosperity is evidenced in the Canadian Pacific Railway's record-breaking order for new equipment—12,500 new freight cars and 300 locomotives. The company also has under consideration the double tracking of its Rock Mountain division. The value of many a summer boarder at a fashionable watering resort goes into the safe after he leaves.

Rev. A. McCullen, who at one time was pastor of Fifth Street Methodist church, Wilmington, and who is now presiding elder of the Rockingham District, after spending several days at Wrightsville Beach, left yesterday for his home at Rockingham.

Manager Couch of the Oceanic Hotel, was the host at a delightful sailing party yesterday morning. The sloop Edwin, Capt. Oscar Salter, was used for the outing, which was enjoyed by a large number of the guests of the hotel. The party returned to the hotel at noon.

Arrivals yesterday at the Seashore Hotel included: Miss Lula Webb, Miss Agnes Webb, Charlotte; Lee R. Coggin, Canton, Ga.; J. A. McMillan, S. McLean, Misses Edith and Catherine McLean, McDonald, N. C.; Mrs. Z. V. Croom, Miss Lillian Butler, Atlanta; Miss Bobbie Croom, Burgaw.

Mr. John Hasty, the efficient steward at the Oceanic Hotel, and a party went out fishing yesterday afternoon, using a net. Mr. Hasty landed six pompanos, an unexcelled food fish that is very rare in the waters of this section. It is said that some of the fish were 18 inches in length. The pompanos were caught just outside the inlet.

Over the course of the Carolina Yacht Club an open race will be sailed Monday morning. The start will be made at 10:45. Four prizes, two for each class, have been provided by the regatta committee, and these will be awarded immediately after the race. Nearly all the boats owned by club members are expected to be entered.

The standing of the contestants in the series of canoe races, the last of which will be pulled off at Lumina on Labor Day, is as follows: Irvin Corbett, 17 points; Wm. Lord, 11; R. Davis, 10; Parsley, 7; Murchison, 3; Smith, 2. The last race of the series promises to be the hardest fought of all, and will no doubt prove interesting to the many friends of the contestants and others who will be at Lumina on Labor Day.

STILL KNOCKING RECALL

Bar Association Goes On Record As Against Proposed Plan

Millwaukee, August 29.—"One-eyed leaders of the blind," was the term used before the American Bar Association at its closing session today to describe those who seek judicial reform through the recall of judges. The association after going on record as both to the recall of judges and to judicial decisions, decided that other methods must be employed to prevent delays in lawsuits. Chas. A. Boston, of New York, asserted that less criticism of the bench could be had by providing for judges a written code of ethics such as had been put into effect by every State bar association.

Henry D. Eastbrook, of New York, after asserting that judicial recall was being urged by "one-eyed leaders of the blind," said: "It is proposed to recall a judge from his high office to obscurity or disgrace whenever he decided a case not necessarily contrary to law, but contrary to what a number of people in his vicinity regard as law. It is proposed that a clique of voters may set in motion the vast and expensive machinery of an election for this purpose whenever and as often as they see fit. It is proposed that the issue shall be determined not by a majority vote of all eligible electors, who are perhaps indifferent to the proceeding, but by a majority of those actually voting on the particular issue, and who are passionately alive to it."

"Here is an amplification of trial by jury that transpires; where the judge himself is a prisoner at the bar accused of no crime nor anything in particular, without benefit of counsel or power to summon witnesses—not even to be confronted by his accusers. It is a dastardly, cowardly, cruel contrivance that would make the cruelty of the inquisition almost respectable by comparison."

Frank B. Kellogg, of St. Paul, Minn., was elected president; George White Loke, of Baltimore, was re-elected secretary, and Frederick E. Wadhams, of Albany, N. Y., was re-elected treasurer. The selection of the 1912 meeting place was left to the executive committee.

The American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology, allied to the Bar Association, began its fourth annual meeting here today.

CLARK IN MAINE

Speaker Makes First of Three Campaign Speeches

Rockland, Maine, August 29.—Speaker Champ Clark of the National House of Representatives, delivered tonight the first of three speeches which he will make in the Democratic State campaign. Mr. Clark confined his remarks to the tariff and was the second Democratic speaker of National prominence to enter the State, Governor Marshall, of Indiana, the Democratic Vice Presidential nominee, closing his tour of Maine tonight, at Lewiston. Mr. Clark will speak at Bar Harbor and Ellsworth tomorrow. "Maine went hell-bent for Governor Kent," quoted Mr. Clark, in forecasting a Democratic sweep in both Houses of Congress and in the White House. After paying a tribute to Wilson and Marshall, the National nominee, the Speaker argued for a tariff for revenue only.

MAJ. W. W. PEIRCE.

His Peculiar Fitness For Adjutant General—High Endorsement. (Special Star Correspondence.)

Goldsboro, N. C., August 29.—In the recent death of Adjutant General Leinster the National Guard of North Carolina has lost one of its distinguished leaders. The customary thirty days period of mourning is not yet over but still stern reality must be faced and therefore the question as to who shall succeed the late Adjutant General is the important issue now before Governor Kitchin. Not only are the officers of the National Guard concerned in this but every loyal citizen of the State is interested. For it is not our citizen soldiery our but work in peace as well as our reliance in war and should not every North Carolinian have the welfare of the Guard really at heart? The writer of this has during the past week come in contact with many members of the State Militia. Not only officers but rank and file of enlisted men show the greatest interest in the matter of who will be their next Adjutant General. It is only natural that many officers of the Guard should aspire to this high position but it is one that is so difficult to fill that the Governor is pursuing the wise course of taking counsel with those best able to advise him. Among the candidates who have come forward for appointment there is probably none so well qualified to discharge the duties of the office as Major Wentworth W. Peirce, of the Corps of Engineers, who resides in Goldsboro. Major Peirce is a young man whose entire life, even from earliest boyhood, has been dominated by military training. Beginning with the years spent as a cadet at the United States Military Academy at West Point, then his years of service in the regular army, followed by one year's experience as a Pay Officer in the United States Navy, and then his continued service in the National Guard of his native State there has not been a time within the last 15 years of his life that he did not wear the uniform of some branch of the military service of his country. Descending from a long line of distinguished ancestors, all of whom were military men, tried, tested and proved in the crucible of war, there is every reason why a man so nobly sired should prove most acceptable to fill the high position of Adjutant General of North Carolina. How well Major Peirce is liked by his comrades in the military service and the high opinion they have of his ability as a soldier is best proven by the endorsements and recommendations urging Major Peirce for the appointment as Adjutant General. Even those officers who, before knowing that Major Peirce was a candidate for this office had endorsed some one else have written to either Major Peirce or his personal friends assuring them of the high esteem in which they hold him and regretting that they did not know of his candidacy sooner. The writer, himself a member of the Guard, speaks from the standpoint of one who knows when he says that were the enlisted men asked whom they want for Adjutant General they would with one accord proclaim in favor of Major Peirce. It is hoped that for the future efficiency of the Guard and to maintain the high standard for which the militia of this State is now noted throughout the country that Governor Kitchin will make Major Peirce Adjutant General. It is true that there are many officers in the State who by reason of being older in years and in service aspire to this position. But there is none who would bring to the office the training, the experience, the efficiency and the knowledge of military affairs, especially as to the needs of the Guard which Major Peirce possesses. Had this paper any influence it would say to Governor Kitchin, "The one object and the only consideration that should have any weight in making this appointment are the good of the Guard and its future progress. Then, there is one logical solution and that is, appoint Major Peirce."

Is This Why English Beauties Are So Fair?

(From London Herald.)

Ever since the discovery that mercurized wax would absorb and remove a soiled complexion its use by ladies as a substitute for toilet creams has grown rapidly. A perfect complexion can be maintained indefinitely if this remarkable substance is used. Its beneficent cleansing, clearing and preservative action is quickly apparent, and ladies who have been paying as high as a guinea a jar for "special cream" from beauty specialists, soon recognize that mercurized wax outranks them all. It has become so popular that it can be obtained at all chemist shops in the British Isles. American druggists also have great demand for it, in original one-ounce packages. The favorite way of using is to apply it, like cold cream, before retiring, washing it off in the morning.

The sallow lotion for wrinkles and the facial contour has also become extremely popular. One ounce powdered sallowite is dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Bathing the face in this has a splendid effect.

KITCHIN SPEAKS TO BIG AUDIENCE

States, declared the speaker, had seen the sin and iniquity of the Republican party to which his eyes were closed by greed and ambition only a few short months ago, and had now forsaken the ranks. Thousands of other Republicans had done so, and no one could blame them for Roosevelt had shown the people that Taft was not fit to have the support of a decent man, and Taft had disclosed enough about Roosevelt to make even a bad man not care to follow him. The Governor said that he was willing to extend the hand of welcome to any Republican whose conscience is hurting him, and that now is the best time for such men to come away from the hosts of sin and iniquity and into the ranks of the righteous, politically speaking.

The people, said Governor Kitchen, have never lost faith in the Democratic principles, no more so than they have in the Ten Commandments. Thousands who believe in both violate both. He said that the Republican party put up the protective tariff system during the War Between the States, and that when it was over the special interests had profited so by the system that they were unwilling to give it up. He said that they had spent vast sums in keeping the system and that the Republican party had preached the false doctrine of protection so earnestly that the people had been deceived. However, the reaction came and 20 years ago the Democratic party elected Grover Cleveland President. At that time William L. Wilson introduced a bill abolishing the protective tariff system, and this bill was passed in the House of Representatives. However, the bill was killed in the Senate by self-styled Democrats who were in the control of the interests and who betrayed the party they represented. Consequently the party was swept out of office and almost out of existence at the next election. But the reaction came again and at the last Congressional election an overwhelming Democratic majority was swept into the House of Representatives. It took no prophet, he said, to foretell the coming of Woodrow Wilson at the election in November, and with a Democratic President and House, the special interests would make their last and desperate stand in the Senate.

The Governor then declared that no man could defend the record of Senator Simmons for the last four years without repudiating the principles and platform of the Democratic party, and no man could repudiate the platform and principles of Democracy without commending the record of Senator Simmons. The Governor said that in opening his campaign in Raleigh he had made 13 separate and distinct charges against Senator Simmons' record and that they stand today unquestioned and unanswered. If it could be proved that these charges were not true, then the Governor said that he would withdraw from the campaign.

It had been charged, the Governor said, that he was indulging in personalities in the campaign. This was untrue, and his view of the matter was that he was making his campaign upon his record and his friends' issues upon the record of Senator Simmons. If any man present felt that personalities were being indulged in, the Governor asked that he speak up.

In response ex-Mayor A. G. Ricard, who was in the audience, asked the Governor if it was not true that he and his friends had used as an argument the Charlotte convention four years ago the charge that Locke Craig, the Governor's opponent, had once voted for James G. Blaine.

Governor Kitchen immediately replied that they had and that no one attempted to deny it. Mr. Ricard then asked the speaker if he and his friends were not supporting Mr. Craig for the gubernatorial nomination this year and if so how they could be consistent.

Governor Kitchen replied that he and his friends were supporting Mr. Craig, and that he could not be nominated without their support. He stated in explanation that four years ago, in his speech at Laurinburg, according to the report of the Charlotte Observer, Mr. Craig had begun the personalities by belittling his (Kitchen's) record. It was after that that he had made the charge as to the Blaine vote and he did it merely to show that no man could strike him without being struck back. If it lay in his power to do so, he said that Mr. Ricard should feel ashamed of himself, as a Democrat, bringing up a charge that had no bearing on the discussion.

Proceeding with his speech Governor Kitchen told how he had incurred the hospitality of the Southern Railroad, the American Tobacco Company and the Armour plate trust by his action in Congress. He also declared that he had secured more rural free delivery for his district than any other district in the State and that he had secured more appropriations for his district than had been given any other district in the State. He also spoke of the record of North Carolina under his administration, declaring that it had been one of unequal progress.

He then referred to the charges he had made against Senator Simmons, pointing out first that Mr. Simmons had on March 1st, 1911, made a speech in the Senate in defense of Lorimer, and that the month he had voted to throw Lorimer out of the Senate. He said that Mr. Simmons pleaded as his excuse that at the second investigation a whole lot of evidence in regard to a "jack pot" came out. The Governor declared that there had been as much evidence of a jack pot at the first investigation as was developed at the second.

His second charge was that on March 13th, 1911, Simmons spoke in favor of an ocean mail subsidy bill and that he had never changed his opinion on this, which was directly in opposition to the principles laid down in the Democratic platform but that he did change his vote on the matter, after the bill had been stamped to death by the Committee in the House.

The Governor also referred to Senator Simmons' record on the reciprocity matter, declaring that he had for 20 or more years preached a protective tariff was a curse to the farmer, and then made a speech against reciprocity, arguing that protective tariff helped the farmer.

Then contrary to his speeches, and platform which he himself had helped to draw up, Senator Simmons had, he said, taken a stand against free trade, on the ground that he was voting for a tariff on lumber for revenue. He said that the National Protective Association had published part of Simmons' speech on lumber in its campaign book, and that it endorsed the speech. He pointed out that Mr. Z. W. Whitehead, of this city, in his Lumber Journal published here, had appealed to the lumber men of the State to stand by Simmons because Simmons had stood by them, and that the American Lumber Journal had published Simmons' entire speech on lumber and also printed an excellent photograph of Simmons on its cover page.

The Governor also referred to Senator Simmons' record on the bill for tariff on building material, carpenters' tools, lime, etc.; his position on the iron ore tariff bill; his vote for protective tariff on coal, as against his speech in Charlotte less than four years ago denouncing the coal trust; his vote to double the tariff on pineapples; his speech in favor of a protective tariff on monaxite sand; his speech and vote on the cotton seed oil tariff bill, etc., all of which the speaker contended, clearly showed that Senator Simmons had violated all pledges of the party platform and the principles of Democracy.

He pointed out the fact that in the whole session last year, Senator Simmons, out of 43 roll calls, voted 19 times against the Democratic party. The Governor referred to the fact, and read from the Congressional Record, to show that those Democrats voted with Simmons in these cases were in nearly every instance Bailey, Clark and Thornton.

Governor Kitchen declared that wherever you see a man who votes the State Democratic ticket and the National Republican ticket, he is, almost without exception, in favor of Simmons, because of Simmons' position on the protective tariff question. He declared that Aycock and Clark would not have entered the field against Simmons had they not believed that he had been false to the principles of the Democratic party.

He quoted from an article by Mark Sullivan, in the latest issue of Collier's Weekly, which stated, in effect, that among the 30 Senators whose terms expire this year, the one Democrat who most conspicuously deserves defeat is Simmons, of North Carolina. He referred to an interview in which Simmons declared himself opposed to Champ Clark and Oscar Underwood, and also declared that Simmons, while under the belief that Bryan was a "dead duck" had repudiated him. Incidentally the speaker declared that if North Carolina ever gets another opportunity to vote for Wm. J. Bryan, he will give him a majority double that which he has even received before.

The speaker called attention to his position on the labor question, declaring that he was the only Governor of North Carolina who had ever recommended the 10-hour day labor law, which was passed by the last Legislature. He declared that every paragraph of the platform of 1898, in the White Supremacy campaign, had been written by himself, with the exception of one, which was written by ex-Governor Jarvis.

He also called attention to Senator Simmons' position on the Fusion question and his stand on the red shirt campaign, when he opposed it at its inception.

"No Democrat," said the speaker, "has ever followed my flag to defeat, and I want to say to you Kitchen men tonight that we are going to win another overwhelming victory. If I go to Washington as your Senator, as I believe I shall, I promise you that I will stand by the principles of the Democratic party whether I am in the majority or minority."

The Governor concluded by declaring that he expected to get four times the vote in the western part of the State that he received in the last election, and that he expected to get a heavier vote in this section than ever before. He stated that he wanted the support of only those who believed he was a progressive and not a stand-patter or reactionary, and that if any one thought either of the other candidates were better progressives, he would advise them to vote for that man. He declared his readiness to come back to Wilmington and meet Senator Simmons and make in his presence every statement that he has already made, and he asserted that Mr. Simmons would have to admit that they were true. He closed by advising all to vote for Woodrow Wilson for president, Locke Craig for Governor and W. W. Kitchen for Senator.

The Governor will leave this morning for Elton, Bladen county, where he will deliver his next speech. He was entertained by his friends here yesterday on a number of rides about the city and over the county roads.

WANT INVESTIGATION

Charleston County Committee Would Probe Police Action
Charleston, S. C., August 29.—The county Democratic executive committee adopted a resolution today demanding an investigation of the action of the local police in ejecting a committeeman from one of the polling precincts in Tuesday's primary.

This and other alleged unwarranted acts on the part of the police, led to the mobilizing of the militia of the city in order to afford protection to the committee in counting the votes. The militia were held for some hours at their armories, but their services were not required.

The soldiers were assembled at the instance of supporters of Sheriff J. Elmore Martin, who was a successful candidate for re-nomination.

TAFT HAS BIG TIME

President Helps Celebrate Columbus, Ohio, Centennial—Speaks Twice

Columbus, Ohio, August 29.—President Taft came here today to help the city celebrate the centenary of its birth as the capital of Ohio. For 19 hours he was the central figure of all the ceremonies that his friends and the celebration committee could devise.

He breakfasted with a Governor, a mayor and a Congressman; lunched with a commission and dined with a bar association. He made speeches to the farmers of his home State at the State Fair grounds and to the lawyers at a $10-a-plate banquet tonight. He motored over busy streets and slippery roads to keep his engagements with a screaming fire department automobile 100 feet ahead. He shook hands with a few thousand persons at the fair grounds and in the grounds of the State capital kissed a few babies; looked with awe upon the freaks displayed in front of the side shows at the fairs, and sat for an hour in the grandstand while the clowns and the trained horses, the band and trotters and pacers maneuvered in front of him on the race track and in the paddock. Before he went to the dinner of the bar association tonight he talked Ohio politics with Chairman Daugherty, of the Ohio Republican Executive Committee, his secretary, Carmel Thompson, who is an Ohioan, the Republican nominee for Governor and other party leaders.

It was a day typical of the travel scenes of the President and appeared to him to be a regular account. The setting was complete, even up to the case of a demented woman who tried to see him at his hotel, who was arrested by the police and who declared that she was the President's wife. The woman, Mrs. Caroline Beers, said she was going to punish the President. She had two long knives concealed in her clothing. There was not a dull moment from the time the President disembarked until late tonight. Leaving Columbus early tomorrow, he is due back in Beverly Saturday to take up his Summer vacation.

Aside from his speech to the lawyers tonight he had only one engagement calling for an address. He told the farmers at the State fair grounds why he exercised the veto power given him under the constitution, rapped the ideas of new "reformers" and declared that the government has meant well by the farmer and intends to do still more for him in the future. During the day he received a message from Major General Wood, Chief of Staff, who is in Washington, conveying the information that his order to send the Tenth Infantry to Nicaragua from Panama had been cancelled as directed. He again expressed the belief that marines now in Nicaragua or en route to that republic will be able to protect Americans.

NOTED SCULPTOR DEAD

Lewis Potter Dies in Seattle—Treated By Chinese Physician

Seattle, Wash., August 29.—Lewis Potter, of New York, a noted American sculptor, died in great agony in an obscure hotel here today after undergoing 10 days' treatment at the hands of a specialist for a skin disease. The doctor was Chinese.

The exact cause of Potter's death has not been stated, although Coroner Snyder is convinced that it was not blood poisoning, as at first believed. An autopsy was held tonight, but nothing definite developed. A chemical analysis of the stomach will be made tomorrow.

Dr. Snyder said that after making a chemical analysis of the contents of the stomach, he would examine the Chinese doctor tomorrow.

The investigation by the coroner disclosed that Potter had been without food since Friday, when he submitted to a painful operation at the hands of the Chinese physician. The abdomen was scratched with scissors and an Oriental plaster applied to the lacerated surface.

According to information given the coroner, Potter met a woman tourist who had suffered from an ailment similar to his and who had been treated similarly by a Chinese in California. When she learned that Potter was coming to Seattle she told him that he could obtain such treatment here. Upon his arrival he registered under an assumed name to avoid publicity. Potter had suffered from the disease since birth, the coroner was informed, and although prominent physicians of New York and Paris had told him that his ailment was not serious, the sculptor had worried constantly.

Potter had attained international fame as a sculptor. Several years ago he attracted attention by executing a remarkable bust of Mark Twain, although he had never seen the great humorist and worked solely by the aid of pictures. A Potter group entitled "Earth's Children" exhibited here last year, was another of his noteworthy productions.

Mr. Potter was born in Troy, N. Y., and studied in this country and abroad. Perhaps his best known works are groups of American and Alaskan Indians. He was unmarried and was 39 years old.

Complaint was made to Mayor Smith yesterday by Mr. Henry White, agent of the Seaboard Air Line Railway at this point, that the curbing recently placed on Brunswick street, just above the freight depot, was so set that when there are heavy rains the water flows over the curbing and drains into a basement, where the heating plant is located. Mayor Smith will take the matter up with Councilman P. Q. Moore, in charge of the Streets and Wharves Department.

COAL BARGE SUNK

The Felix Rammed by the British Steamer Kirnwood

Newport News, Va., August 29.—While lying at anchor in Hampton Roads, one mile below Old Point, coal laden from Norfolk to Providence, the coastwise coal barge Felix, of the Seely Line, was run into and sunk late this afternoon by the British steamer Kirnwood, outward bound from Norfolk. The barge sank within 15 minutes after the collision, having been practically cut in half, and captain Edward Stram, his wife and the six members of the crew barely escaped going down. They were taken aboard the Kirnwood, which was badly damaged about the bow, and landed here. The steamer, leaking badly and with a heavy list to starboard, was rushed to the plant of the local shipbuilding company, where she was put in dry dock. Captain Neilsen, of the Kirnwood, states that he changed his course in avoiding another steamer and before he could right his course, the tide had carried him into the barge.

The Felix, which was of steel, was valued at $15,000 and her cargo of 2,100 tons of coal at $6,000. Her captain and crew lost all of their effects.

—Report has been made at police headquarters that several articles of jewelry were either stolen or lost from the residence of Dr. Joseph Akerman, No. 220 North Fourth Street. The officers have been asked to keep a lookout for the missing jewelry.
